75 WEARIES TAKEN FROM STOLEN TRAIN

S. P. Detectives Kill Two Mexicans Following Murder of Brakeman

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30. — Outbreaks of "hoboes" now flocking to California as a result of the industrial situation in the east, today caused western railroads to admit that they were confronted by a serious problem in protecting their property.

During the last twenty-four hours three lives have been taken in battles between tramps and railroad guards and one train has been "stolen" and run a distance of 150 miles from Bakersfield to Los Angeles by "hoboes."

E. E. Moore, brakeman on a freight train, was shot and killed by one of eight "hoboes" whom he attempted to put off a train at Galt, Calif., last night.

Kills Two Mexicans
N. T. Greene, special railroad policeman, shot and killed two Mexican tramps at Goshen, Cal., early today after they had attacked him when he ordered them off a train.

Seventy-five hoboes were arrested last night in Los Angeles when they arrived from Bakersfield with a train which they had commandeered during the afternoon. They had run the train on fast schedule the entire distance of 150 miles, forcing dispatchers to side track regular trains for the "weary special."

Many Seeking Work
"Our hobo problem is the worst it has ever been," an official of the Southern Pacific said today. "It is the result of the Eastern unemployment situation."

"Many of the men, who are crowding onto the breadlines of every westbound freight train nowadays are not necessarily 'hoboes,' but are men accustomed to hard work, but who cannot find means of making a living in the East. They are flocking to California because of the mild winter climate and the fact that unemployment is not quite so acute here as in the East."

FOLLOWING ATTACK

VISALIA, Cal., Sept. 30. — Two Mexicans were shot and killed at 3 a. m. today by N. Y. Greene, special officer of the Southern Pacific, railroad when they attacked him after he had ordered them off a train.

Greene, who was on duty at Goshen, a junction point, ordered the Mexicans along with other tramps off a freight train. The two Mexicans argued with him and finally attacked. One struck him in the face, knocking him down.

As he lay on the ground Greene opened fire with his revolver, killing one of the Mexicans instantly and wounding the second, who died in a hospital here shortly before daylight.

Greene has not been held.

MEXICAN HOBOS KILL RAILROAD BRAKEMAN

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30. — E. E. Moore, brakeman of the Southern Pacific, was shot and killed by a member of a Mexican gang, who he attempted to evict from a train near here last night.

Moore's body was found in a pool of blood on a flat car when the train arrived at Galt at 3 p. m. yesterday. A 17-year-old boy who witnessed the shooting informed Conductor R. Jensen.

According to the lad's story there were six Mexicans aboard the train en route to Tracy from Roseville. Brakeman Moore ordered them from the train, but they refused to leave. The brakeman was climbing to the top of a box car in order to signal the engineer to stop when one of the Mexicans drew a revolver and shot him through the back.

Federal Agents Bare Alleged Plot of Army Swindle Gang

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 30. — Five civilians, four men and one former army nurse and ten soldiers, including a captain in the quartermaster corps, were held today as the result of the uncovering of alleged wholesale thefts of motor transport corps property from government warehouses at Camp Travis.

It is estimated by United States agents that between $40,000 and $50,000 worth of tires, automobiles, trucks and accessories have been removed by the gang from storage.

The majority of the stolen property, according to the agents, has been shipped into Mexico.

WANDERER SINGS TO SLAIN WIFE AS HE MOUNTS DEATH TRAP

United Press Leased Wire
CHICAGO, Sept. 30. — Carl Wanderer, with a song to the wife he murdered on his lips, was hanged at the Cook county jail at dawn today.

The murderer of three—Mrs. Wanderer, her unborn babe and the "poor boob"—went to his death without a show of fear or an outward sign of repentance.

As he stood on the scaffold and the hangman's noose was being adjusted Wanderer was asked if he had anything to say. He responded by singing, in a clear resonant voice, the chorus of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me."

A deathlike quiet settled on the crowd which packed the little enclosure where the scaffold was erected, until the last note was finished.

As the hood was adjusted, Wanderer repeated clearly the prayers intoned for him by his pastor. He stood erect, with head and shoulders thrown back.

The trap was sprung at 7:21 and he was pronounced dead five minutes later.

"The game man ever hung in this jail," was the comment of attaches of the prison.

Practices Death Song.
Wanderer spent his last night singing and whistling between intermittent spells of sleep. He was buoyant and happy and talked and laughed with the guards. Frequently through the night the guards heard the strains of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me," coming from the condemned man's cell. He apparently was practicing the song which he planned to sing on the scaffold.

Wanderer had a newspaper picture of his wife near his heart when he was hanged. He was allowed to place the picture inside his shirt. Shortly before the death march began, he read a few passages from the bible and then read from a pamphlet entitled "Hell," which he had taken to his death cell.

The triple murder which cost Wanderer his life, was committed in the vestibule of his home on June 21, 1920. He was returning from a theater with his wife. A tramp, who had been hired by Wanderer to commit a "fake holdup," stopped them inside the door. The wife and tramp were killed.

Police Trace Gun.
His story of the holdup was at first accepted and he was regarded as a hero for killing the "bandit." Police, however, traced the gun used by the "poor boob" to Wanderer, and he confessed.

There were three possible motives for the killing—Wanderer's love for another girl; his desire to return to the army, and the fact that his wife withdrew $1000 from the bank the day of the murder. This money was used in Wanderer's defense.

The first trial on the charge of killing his wife, Wanderer was given a sentence of 25 years. He was brought to trial for the killing of the "poor boob" and sentenced to death.

POSTMASTER HAYS
COMING TO INSPECT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30. — An inspection trip to Los Angeles for the purpose of ascertaining ways and means to improve the local postal service, will be made by Postmaster General Hays and his second assistant, Colonel Shaughnessy, it was learned here.

The postmaster general has not yet set a date for his visit, but it is believed he will arrive here before the first of the year. Postmaster Hays declared his intention of visiting Los Angeles to Guy Adams, local representative of the Union Pacific, who is now in Washington, according to dispatches.

Dry Agent Raises Lid For Wet Party, Police Charge

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30. — Cocktails and champagne alleged to have been seized from the banquet table of a party headed by A. B. Spreckels last night were returned to the party and consumed, Captain Arthur Layne, head of the police raiding squad charged in a statement today.

He claimed that the liquor was returned by prohibition officers at the direction of E. Forest Mitchell, prohibition chief, over Layne's protest.

The incident was alleged to have occurred at the "Old Poodle Dog" restaurant here. Layne's charges caused a mighty stir.

"I seized the liquor as evidence and put it away," Layne declared.

"A prohibition officer returned it to the party and they drank the evidence."

Layne said he refused to raid parties drinking "cheap wine" and let the champagne drinkers go free.

WILL SEEK RELEASE OF WOMAN IN DEATH CASE ON LAW POINT

BY ROBERT A. DONALDSON

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Sept. 30. — The possibility that the defense may attempt to free Mrs. Lydia Southard, alleged "female Bluebeard," who is on trial on a charge of poisoning her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, on a legal technicality loomed today.

The defense is known to be considering making a motion to dismiss the charge against Mrs. Southard on the ground that the poisoning which the state alleges caused Meyer's death, or whatever disease caused his death, could not possibly have taken place in Twin Falls county and therefore the complaint charging Mrs. Southard with murder is invalid.

If the objection is made before the jury is empaneled and sworn, and the court should uphold the objection, the case might conceivably be transferred to Jerome, the county seat of Jerome county.

If the objection should be sustained after the jury is empaneled, Mrs. Southard would automatically go free because her life would have been once in jeopardy and the state could not try her again on a charge arising from Meyer's death.

Meyer was foreman of the Blue Lakes ranch, a little patch of lakes and orchards down in the gorge of the Snake river, just across the river from the Twin Falls county line.

CLEVELAND WINS AS N. Y. TAKES CHAMPIONSHIP THOUGH IDLE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30. — The Yankees have no claim to the American league pennant because of the postponement of today's game with the Athletics, Connie Mack, manager of the A's, stated emphatically to the United Press here this afternoon.

"The game postponed today must be played on our next schedule with the Yankees, which will be in New York," Mack declared. "We will probably play a double-header with the Yankees in New York tomorrow," he said.

COMISKIPY PARK, CHICAGO, Sept. 30. — The Cleveland Indians were eliminated from the running for the American league championship today although they defeated the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2.

The Yankees, through having their game with Philadelphia postponed today, clinched the American league pennant. They do not have to play the game and Cleveland couldn't win unless the Yankees should have played and lost it. Since under the rules of the American league the Yankees do not have to play the game, it is probable that they will not risk a chance of losing the championship by playing the game.

The official canvass of the Indians in today's game but Cleveland with only one good inning, the fifth, took a lead of one run, which was sufficient to win the game.

Covelskie pitched for the Indians and allowed seven hits. Urban Faber was on the mound for the White Sox and hurled air-tight ball except in the fifth.

Female Voices Spoil Yom Kippur Song Service; Suit Looms

CHICAGO, Sept. 30. — Five women, Chicago grand opera stars, today declared they would bring suit against trustees of the North Shore Congregation B'Nai Israel for failure to carry out a contract.

The singers claimed the congregation desired to have the "swellest Yom Kippur" in the city and hired outside singers. As most of the music is written for male voices, the female singers had great difficulty in attaining the guttural sounds required.

Disguised as men, so as not to offend the orthodox members, the women sang at one service, they claimed, but suspicions were aroused because there were not enough guttural sounds forthcoming. A protest resulted in the dismissal of the women.

Discontinue Fights Against Kansas Industrial Court.

COLUMBUS, Kans., Sept. 30. — Alexander Howatt and August Dorchy, Kansas' Mine union chiefs, were ordered to jail here late today by District Judge Boss after they refused to give bond not to call more strikes in violation of the industrial court law.

Both miners' heads were remanded to serve six months' sentences and $500 fines each, which resulted from a conviction of violating the industrial court law by calling a "local" strike over a young miner's wages.

Trainmen From 57 Roads Open Strike Parley

CHICAGO, Sept. 30. — Grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of 57 lines today began consideration of the advisability of going out on strike.

Within ten days their decisions will be in the hands of President William G. Lee, who will then lay the facts before the brotherhoods highest tribunal—the executive committee.

There is but little doubt among organization officials as to the attitudes of the grievance committees. The official canvass of the strike ballots showed 91 per cent of the membership voted to walkout rather than accept wage cuts decreed by the United States labor board. So, union chieftains believed, there was nothing else for the committees to do but abide by the majority's wishes.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 30.—News of the death yesterday of Bishop Walter R. Lambuth of the Southern Methodist church in a hospital at Kokohama, Japan, was received here by relatives.

PROPERTY DEAL SETS RECORD, IS BELIEF

FULLERTON, Sept. 30.—Father M. J. Galvin, rector of St. Mary's Catholic church of Fullerton, was the successful bidder for the residence of the late Miss Anna McDermont, West Commonwealth avenue, the price being $1,355 for the 2-10 acres comprising the property.

The sale was made through E. N. Fuller and has been approved by the district court.

The property contains the house occupied by Miss McDermont, the remainder of the land being in fruit of various varieties.

It has been the home of Miss McDermont since she came here from Indiana, about 20 years ago.

It lies on the south side of Commonwealth avenue, between the city park and the Robertson nursery and extends back to the railroad.

The price of about $7000 an acre probably sets a new high mark, but it is believed that the location is more of a factor than the present improvement on the land.

There has been some speculation as to whether or not it will not eventually be the site of a school, but no announcement along that line has yet been made.

SEEKS GUARDIANSHIP OF HER 2 CHILDREN

Petition for appointment as guardian of her two minor children, Agnes Catherine Rasmussen, 11, and Margaret Rasmussen, 9, was on file today in the superior court from Mrs. Bertha Rasmussen, 521 South Walnut street, Anaheim.

The petition sets forth that under provisions of the estate left by the father, Martin Rasmussen, each child is heir to a legacy of $5,000.

TO ESCAPE JAIL BY MARGIN OF 2 MILES

H. L. Melvin, R. D. 6, Santa Ana, narrowly missed prospects of a jail sentence, according to a complaint sworn out today by Motorcycle Officer H. S. Warner, who charges Melvin with driving his car at a rate of 48 miles an hour on Edington avenue.

Melvin was ordered to appear October 4 before Justice J. B. Cox, in whose court a 50-mile speeding case calls for a jail sentence.

CAL. MINE MAGNATE DIES FROM WOUNDS

BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 30.—H. G. Meade, 50, prominent mining man of Colorado, Wyoming and California, died here yesterday after wounding himself with a revolver. Meade leaves a widow in Los Angeles. Papers in his possession showed he was president of the Pacific Coast Sulphur company, with mines in California.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

MCPHERSON, Kans., Sept. 30 —Colonel Fred Ellis, 41, head of the Kansas national guard, accidentally shot and killed himself in his home here early today when he fell while hunting for an intruder he had heard.

RESOURCEFUL WILLIE

"If a banana costs 3 cents," said the teacher, "what will a dozen cost?" Willie hesitated, then gave it up.

"Well, do you suppose you could do the sum if we were to play at keeping shop?"

Willie thought that he could and consented to enter the make-believe market and address the shopman:

"Have you any good bananas today?"

"Some fine ones at 3 cents apiece," was the reply.

"I'll take a dozen, if you please," said Willie, digging into his pocket for imaginary cash. "And how much will that be?"

What Really Counts In Saving Money

Ask any saver who has succeeded in building up his Savings Account to large proportions what counts most in saving money and he will tell you—

The Will to Save: No wishy-washy, easy-going person ever got very far with his Savings Account. It takes back-bone and determination.

A Plan: The successful saver saves by plan! He plans his expenditures in advance, and makes a regular allowance for savings.

Regularity: A deposit in his Savings Account is the first obligation which the successful saver takes care of each month. Then he just makes himself live on the remainder.

We want the accounts of ambitious savers who are anxious to get ahead and who are making their Savings Accounts the stepping stone to bigger and better things. Start yours today!

augmented by one on wheels in Tulare county, this system of giving special instruction to students of elementary schools in some sections of the county having been instituted by Superintendent Buckman.

The new California school law provided an emergency and supervision fund for this work. Music, physical education and manual training are included.

W. P. Houk, regular deputy county superintendent of the visual department, for which a moving picture machine will be purchased. Exeter, Tulare, Oroqui, Strathmore, Tipton and Pixley rural districts will have this special feature.

City and County

An open invitation to the physicians of the city to attend the meeting of the brotherhood of the First Congregational church next Tuesday evening has been extended by the brotherhood president, Dr. F. W. Slater. The speaker will be Dr. Sven Lokrantz, a specialist in correcting physical defects.

Mayor John G. Mitchell is in receipt of advices from Capt. Harrington W. Cochran, Fort Arthur, San Pedro, that recruiting for the army has been instituted again, because the strength of the army is below that recently authorized by congress.
About seventy men will be enlisted for the coast defenses of Los Angeles, but owing to the reputation of Fort McArthur as the best coast artillery station in the service, it is believed the number of applicants will far exceed the vacancies," writes the captain. "Bandmen are particularly desired to make the coast defense band one of the best in the service."

Former New Yorkers now dwelling in Santa Ana were today busily preparing to attend the annual picnic of the society of the Empire state, which will be held tomorrow in Syl-amore Grove park, Los Angeles. An interesting program of brief talks by prominent New Yorkers, varied by musical numbers, has been arranged.

With today marking the final conference of the annual convention of the city and county school superintendents of the state, which has been in progress since Monday at Hotel del Coronado, San Diego, County Superintendent R. P. Mitchell and City Superintendent J. A. Cranston were expected to return to Santa Ana late this afternoon. The conference of the leading educators of the state was productive of many interesting and valuable features, among them being the discussions of the recentlyenacted school laws, discussions which were introduced and led by Superintendent Cranston.

Announcement that the silver medal contest of the W. C. T. U., held recently by that organization in Orange, was to be repeated in the Costa Mesa church tonight at 7:30 o'clock, has aroused considerable interest here today. Six contestants are to appear on the program, which will also feature interesting musical numbers, among them a saxophone and piano selection by Mr. and Mrs.
Owens, of Santa Ana.

Former students of the Santa Ana high school, today enrolled at the University of Southern California, are: Coyle Briggs, Mildred Severance, Ada Mae Sharpless, Claire Sharpless, Harold Lee, Ralph Cole, Kenneth Clem, Christine Watson, Ardis Burns, Marian Hickman, Violet Weissman, at liberal arts; Donald Horton and Roberta Daves at the college of music; Milburn Harvey, Paul Burns, at the college of law;
Cassius Paul, Neal Raney and Hillard Tyrrell at the college of dentistry. Enrollment in the college of liberal arts today totaled 2100, an increase of 15 per cent over last year's attendance, it is said.

Bids were to be opened in Anaheim at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the erection of a church edifice for the Zion Lutheran church there.
Plans which were in excess of the building fund have been revised and original bids have been dropped.

A number of Orange county residents who formerly lived in Kansas are planning on attending the annual picnic of the Pomona Valley Kansas society to be held at Ganesha park, Pomona, Saturday, October 8. Judge Mayo Thomas, C. H. Parsons and Col. F. P. Firey will speak.

William S. Eldredge, recently from the Unity School of Christianity, Kansas City, where he and Mrs.
Eldredge took a special course in the work, will speak at Woodman's hall, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, on
"The Resurrected Life." Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge expect to organize a Unity society here.

J. W. Anderson, local representative of the International Correspondence school, today was making an interesting exhibit in one of the show windows at Sam Stein's of work done by Santa Ana students of the school. Anderson is authority for the statement that a large number of Santa Ana people are taking the school courses. In addition to the display of work is a showing of lists of the courses and information on each. Anderson maintains an office at his residence, 1225 West Third.
The exhibit will be maintained all of next week.

Jesse Strand and Ray Hansen, of Santa Ana, and Art Hansen and H. T. Hansen, of Long Beach, have returned from a hunting trip. They went about 200 miles north of Santa Ana. Strand brought out a mule deer weighing over 200 pounds. The residents around Kernville, from where they pack in, said it was the first mule deer to be brought out in several years.

APPLIES FOR RETURN OF PROPERTY LEASE

Restitution of residence property at 512 East Fourth street, Santa Ana, is asked by Caterino Estrado complaint filed today in the superior court.

Thirty days' notice of termination of a lease on the property is alleged to have been given the defendants.
Carl M. Heim is attorney for the plaintiff.

HIGHTOWER CASE
SLEUTH FREED
UPON WRIT

United Press Leased Wire
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—J. H.
Dunlap, private detective arrested on a charge of perjury as an outgrowth of the William Hightower murder case, was released on a writ of habeas corpus today.

Dunlap had sworn to a murder complaint charging David Bender of Baltimore with the kidnapping and murder of the Rev. Father Patrick Heeslin, Colma priest.

District Attorney Swart of San Mateo county swore to the warrant charging that Dunlap perjured himself in an attempt to pin the Heeslin murder upon Bender.

William Hightower will go to trial
Monday charged with murdering Heeslin. Swart claimed that the charge against Bender was made in an effort to free Hightower. Bender now is a convict in the Maryland state penitentiary.

'AD' IN REGISTER
SWAMPS MAN HERE

Does advertising pay?
Ask L. P. Bauman, secretary and assistant manager of the Santa Ana Steam Laundry. He declares that he knows that it does.

Bauman had a highly improved five-acre tract at Costa Mesa. He wanted a home in Santa Ana, so as to be nearer his business.

He inserted a four-inch double column advertisement in The Register.
Instead of using, its classified advertising columns. He ordered the "ad" inserted thrice, to be run every other day.

He advertised that he would sell his place and take in part exchange a residence in Santa Ana.

One insertion of the ad brought answers that swamped the laundry man, and today he declared that he had thrown up his hands and wanted the other insertions of the ad omitted.

He has already completed negotiations with W. O. Matthews for the latter's residence at 513 West Walnut. The two families will exchange places of residence next Thursday.

The ranch property was disposed of at $10,000, indicating high grade improvements.

FALL FASHIONS IN ALLURING ARRAY

A fairland of fall styles where Milady delights to wander at will, stopping here to examine the shimmering material in a frock and there to feast her eyes on dainty lingerie, suitable for a queen—or an autumn bride—such is the Rankin Drygoods store where the fall opening is now in progress.

Many were the expressions of admiration lavished on the effect attained in the handsome big display windows, by the use of the autumn leaf as the decorative motif. Against the background of brilliant blue velvet, the circle of iridescent leaves sets the color note for the window and clusters of leaves hang gracefully from each frame. Against such richness of color beautiful models in coats, frocks and suits, stand out in splendid relief.

Brown, brown, brown—it is the true color of the season apparently, and some of the most beautiful suits shown are in a rich African brown.
Paneled back, fur Medici-effect collar and the ever-present embroidery, distinguished one beautiful model designed to give youth and elegance to its wearer.

In the frocks, one exquisite creation with a brocade georgette bodice in a deep rust, the design accented with black jet beads to harmonize with the jet tassels, all finished with the flaring ends of the girle of black satin crepe like the skirt, was made for an enchantress,—rather, any woman wearing it would be a potential enchantress, so lovely was the style.

As a medium for blouses and lingerie, georgette has no equal. At hall, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, on
"The Resurrected Life." Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge expect to organize a
Unity society here.

While yalama, tricotine and Poir-et will lead in the favored suit materials, bolivia and velour have the preference in the handsome wraps with their loose sleeves and their luxurious fur collars.

In the smaller accessories such as gloves and hose, it was stated by the heads of those departments that the shade of brown, African, cordovan and Russian calf were preferred by the discriminating buyer, with black and white always good. In gloves the 12-button length has the preference.

Among the filmy silken hose, were shown some cobwebby affairs where satin stripes alternated with those of lace. It was noted that these fancy hose were almost without exception, of a lace stripe rather than figured.

MAN RISKS LIFE TO SAVE TRAPPED CAT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Policeman Thomas Whalen risked his life climbing to the edge of the roof of a building at 629 Clay street to rescue a cat that had accidentally become wedged between the roofs of two buildings. Tenants complained that the cat had been trapped for two days, helpless and slowly starving.

Wholen lassoed a ledge of the roof with a stout rope, and climbed from the top floor hand over hand.
A crowd on the street cheered when he reached the goal and extricated the helpless feline. Holding the cat, he made his way down to the street again.

Versatile Fall Fashions
Combine Costumes of All Races

SMALL wonder that we feel like veritable globe-trotters in these days of world-inspired Fashion developments. It is both exhilarating and enlightening to find ourselves on intimate terms with such foreign topics as the mandarin flare; the Russian blouse; the Egyptian motif; the Spanish note—even the bloused back and picturesque cowl of the austere monk's robe in our very coats.

The New Coats and Wraps Suits Follow New Fashion Trends

THE woman who cherishes the thought of being a bit "dressed up" is coming into her own this season. Even the big Coats for utility purposes carry the dressy
note in touches of self embroidery, novelty girdles, unusual convertible collars and elaborate sleeves. And there are many beautiful fur conceptions to dream about. $27.50 to $125.

THE jaunty innovations of the mode
show to advantage best on the new Suits. Dressy notes, in one form or another, characterize many of the most favored models. Even the classic Tailleur has submitted to the mode and taken on a more gracious aspect. This season
you have the advantage of a diversity of charming models to choose from, all sponsored by accepted authorities. $21.50 to $100.

Fall Street Frocks
Smartly Trilored From Silk or Wool

IT seems quite incredible that the simplicity of the straight-line mode could develop so many and such wholly irresistible variations as are shown in these new Tailored Frocks. Often of Crepe—Satin Crepe—their appealing softness is indescribable.
Again they are of Poiré twill or piquette, unassuming yet smart. $22.50 to $85.

Ermine, one of the season's newest and finest fabrics, is fashioned into a beautiful coat. The unique corded effect in the back with tassels in addition to a beautiful Kollinsky squirrel collar
gives this coat distinction in dress.

An exquisite model has a black satin crepe skirt, and blouse is made of brocade chiffon and velvet in the rust shade, trimmed with jet beads. Imagine, if you can, such a striking effect. A wide girle with jet tassels completes the lovely picture.

Rankin's
AUTUMN
EXPOSITION
Tomorrow

THIS Autumn Exposition apparently settles the question of the length of the skirt. Eight to ten inches from the floor seems to be the accepted length. Only today Paris photographs show skirt lengths about eight inches short of the ground—but you must remember that Parisian skirts have been getting nearer the ground for some time. For the younger woman and miss that is quite a few inches to add to the hem at once, and ten inches will probably be more favorable to them. Be that as it may, all the authentic fashions are here for all personalities, preferences and tastes.

Apparel on Display
May Be Purchased
Tomorrow

All the new models on display in our windows, the new Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Blouses, etc., making their first bow to Santa Ana, may be purchased now. You will find the values greatly advanced, reasonable prices in keeping with quality.

Fall Fabrics

Their nomenclature and description

DOVEDOWN—the first word, the last word, and the best word in Silk Duvelty. So supple, so adaptable, so inspirational is Dovedown that it lends itself not only to all tailored purposes, but to dresses that are draped, and bunched, and in the bouffant ways that Fashion is now following. In black, navy, copper, African, Beige and Quaker.
$6.50 a yard.

SATIN DOVETTE—Fashion demands a silk that is different. We have it in the versatile Satin Dov-ette, the silk that can present two faces to the world. The lustre of satin, the subtlety of a crepe—soft, pliable. In Fuchsia, Idle, Beige, African, Navy and Black. $6.00
a yard.

FRENCH PIQUETTE—Garfield's latest creation. The call is for woolens that will take tailored lines and retain them indefinitely. Piqu-ette and its sister, Tricotine, are adaptable to every whim of fashion.

Navy and bisque Canton Crepe, elaborately beaded and braided, trimmed with spike nails, kimono sleeves, form one of the most beautiful styles in overblouses we've ever seen.

THE blouse was never more important than it is today. Wide sleeves, sometimes caught into a cuff, are a new note. Novelty fringes and embroideries with Persian motif or of metallic thread, contribute to the glories of the new Blouses, which may be fashioned of Canton, Georgette or even duvelty.

THE woman who cherishes the thought
of being a bit "dressed up" is coming into her own this season. Even the big Coats for utility purposes carry the dressy
note in touches of self embroidery, novelty girdles, unusual convertible collars
and elaborate sleeves. And there are many beautiful fur conceptions to dream
about. $27.50 to $125.

THE jaunty innovations of the mode
show to advantage best on the new Suits. Dressy notes, in one form or another, characterize many of the most favored models. Even the classic Tailleur has submitted to the mode and taken on a more gracious aspect. This season
you have the advantage of a diversity of charming models to choose from, all sponsored by accepted authorities. $21.50 to $100.

IT seems quite incredible that the simplicity of the straight-line mode could develop so many and such wholly irresistible variations as are shown in these new Tailored Frocks. Often of Crepe—Satin Crepe—their appealing softness is indescribable.
Again they are of Poiré twill or piquette, unassuming yet smart. $22.50 to $85.

Ermine, one of the season's newest and finest fabrics, is fashioned into a beautiful coat. The unique corded effect in the back
with tassels in addition to a beautiful Kollinsky squirrel collar
gives this coat distinction in dress.

An exquisite model has a black satin crepe skirt, and blouse is made of brocade chiffon and velvet in the rust shade, trimmed with jet beads. Imagine, if you can, such
a striking effect. A wide girle
vely picture.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE
CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Grain quotations
Chicago Board of Trade today. Weather conditions were favorable except for cold in the southwest. There was little disposition to buy while selling was fairly general.

Provisions were irregular.
September wheat opened off 1-8 at 118 1/8 and closed down 2 1/8. December, after opening off 1-4 at 122 3/4 at the close, dropped an additional 2. May opened unchanged at 127 1/2 and closed off 2.

September corn was off 1-4 at 41 1/4 and at the close another 1 1/2. December opened up 1-8 at 51 1/8 but dropped 1-2 at the close. May opened at 55 3/4-4 and closed down 1 1/2.

September oats opened down 7-8 at 33 1/8 and closed off 5-8. December was up 1-2 at the opening of 36 3/4, but lost 3-8 at the close. May opened up 1-8 at 40 3/4 and closed off 1-8.

L. A. FILM FOLK GIVE ARBUCKLE WARM WELCOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Police Judge Sylcain Lazarus, who held Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle to answer for manslaughter today turned over to the police more than a dozen letters threatening him with violence as a result of his action in the case. The police and postal inspectors started an investigation designed to bring to light the authors of the notes. Police Chief Dan O'Brien said he feared it would be necessary to furnish Judge Lazarus a bodyguard.

United Press Leased Wire
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Three young girls dashed into Roscoe Arbuckle's arms when the film comedian stepped from a Pullman at the Southern Pacific station here today. They covered his flushed face with kisses.

A number of men in the large crowd, which awaited his arrival, welcomed him by clapping their hands. Still others "booed" him. A hiss or two was heard.

In Private Car.
Arbuckle's party arrived in a private car attached to the Lark, one of the crack night trains from San Francisco.

Lou Anger, "Fatty's" manager, was the first man to step from the train. He assured newspaper photographers that the accused comedian would pose for them, and urged the crowd to draw back.

Then Arbuckle stepped out. A shout went up. Hand-claps mingled with low hisses.

Roscoe's famous smile was missing. He looked like a young boy afraid of the reception that awaited him. He hugged a brown overcoat as if it were the only friend he had left.

Arbuckle Embarrassed.
A green cap perched on Arbuckle's head. He pulled it off and twisted it in obvious embarrassment. He seemed surprised at the rousing greeting. His face flushed deep red.

Acquaintances, dozens of them, dashed up to Arbuckle.

"We're glad to see you back, Roscoe!" they shouted. Three comely young women kissed him soundly.

Minta Durfee, Arbuckle's wife, who rushed from New York to be at his side, stepped from the train.

Her face also flushed when she witnessed the shower of kisses. But she looked on in admiration. She had a hard time keeping back the tears.

"He's innocent!" she shouted joyously.

Refuses to Smile.
Eager hands helped her from the vestibule step, welcoming the former Mack Sennett comedy queen, whom Hollywood has pronounced as an "all right girl" because of her faithfulness to "Fatty's" trouble.

Arbuckle stepped aside from his party and posed for photographers. But he refused to bring the famous smile into action. All the tricks of the cameramen to that end were in vain.

One of Arbuckle's friends jabbed him in the ribs in an effort to make him smile. He only hung his head.

He refused to make a statement to newspaper reporters, ignoring the hundreds of questions shouted at him.

KLAN RENEWS PLEA FOR FEDERAL PROBE

United Press Leased Wire
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 30.—Telegrams addressed to members of congress urging them to vote in favor of the resolution providing for a congressional investigation of the Ku Klux Klan was dispatched today by William Joseph Simmons, imperial wizard of the order.

Copies of the telegram were sent to all members of congress—Republicans and Democrats alike.

"We respectfully ask and would appreciate your vote in favor of the passage of the bill introduced in congress providing for a congressional investigation of the Ku Klux Klan," Simmons telegraphed.

Simmons pledged whole-hearted assistance and co-operation by Klan officials in the proposed investigation.

Simmons, who has been confined to his bed since Monday with throat trouble, was reported improved today. Affairs of state of the "invisible power" were being conducted by him at his residence, "Krankrest."

DENY STRIKERS IN OIL COMPANY RAID

United Press Leased Wire
BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Sept. 30.—"No oil strikers took part in the raid on the Pacific Oil company's plant at Coalinga."

This was the definite assertion here today of Vice President Harry Baker of the International union.

"Sheriff Jones telephoned me from Coalinga today that the only charges made against union men were based on the merest hearsay and not founded on the facts," Baker informed the United Press.

Walter Yarrow, another union official, today dispatched a telegram to Chairman Al. Well of the oil operators association, urging further consideration of the strikers' stand.

In his message, which was four hundred words in length, Yarrow denied the alleged inefficiency of workers under government mediation.

"The government's signature on contracts between men and employees does not guarantee the workers' jobs," he asserted, in urging the operators to concede to the union request that the government underwrite all agreements.

DENVER, Sept. 30.—Arthur W. Ambrose, chief petroleum technologist of the Denver district, has left with several other federal agents for Kern county, California, oil fields, where they will study causes behind the strike of oil field workers there. They expect to make recommendations for possible federal interference.

FORD TO CONTINUE FIGHT ON NEWBERRY

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 30.—Henry Ford declared today he would not "stop protesting against the illegal use of money in elections as long as Truman H. Newberry is in the United States senate."

"I will carry the issue to the people in every state whose senators vote to whitewash Senator Newberry," the automobile manufacturer declared in an interview with the United Press. Ford was defeated by Newberry for the office of United States senator from Michigan in 1918.

"I do not want public office myself," Ford continued. "You could not drag me into the senate. But I will not rest while Newberry or any one else who through the illegal use of huge sums of money during a political campaign holds a seat in the senate."

TRACE GARDNER BY LETTER TO S. F. PAPER

United Press Leased Wire
RAYMOND, Wash., Sept. 30.—That Roy Gardner, mail bandit and fleet-footed convict de luxe, was actually in Raymond last Friday, and that there he wrote the letter published by the San Francisco Bulletin was considered as certain today.

This belief, held by Chief of Police Shumway, was substantiated late yesterday when Shumway received a letter from George W. Berry of the department of justice in Seattle to the effect that the letter received by the Bulletin was postmarked "Raymond," and that the paper used in its inscription was taken from a pad borrowed from Mrs. Ruth Lowman, proprietor of the Raymond rooms in Raymond.

"There is no question about the writing being Gardner's," Berry informed Chief Shumway.

Shumway has the borrowed tablet in his possession.

Creditors of George B. Wilbur, Gardner's professed friend, are making no effort to have Wilbur brought back here should he be found.

A letter has been received here from Mrs. Wilbur, now in Lewisville, Idaho. She apparently believes her husband still in Raymond, while authorities believe he is in San Francisco. They think that when they find Wilbur, they will find Gardner.

LOCATE AUTO BELIEVED STOLEN BY GARDNER
VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 30.—The automobile stolen from George B. Peoples, of Raymond, Wash., by a man answering the description of Roy Gardner, escaped convict mail bandit, was found early today ditched near the camp grounds here.

The car is a Columbia Six, bearing Washington license 74819, motor 10991.

The car apparently had been left four days ago. It was undamaged.

Police here are endeavoring to establish the identity of the driver. No one has been found yet who saw the car come into the city. Rooming houses and hotels are being combed for a man answering the description of the auto thief who was known to have taken the car from Raymond and who bore a striking resemblance to Gardner.

The opportunity of a lifetime seldom comes heralded by a brass band.

No attention is paid to a chronic liar when he utters an occasional truth.

Experience teaches people lots of things they would rather not know.

THE PATCHWORK QUILT HAVE YOU A PIECE

LOUISE
Let others gaze upon the rose's velvet.
And touch it with caressing fingertips;
They only see the loveliest of flowers—
I see the crimson petals of your lips.
Let others see the shifting lights and shadows Thrown on the glade when clouds ride in the skies;
They see the marvel of the changing meadows—
I see the thoughts that mirror in your eyes.

Let others love the glistening of the sunshine
That makes our summer days so wondrous fair;
They see the burnished mystery of June time—
I see the golden glory of your hair.
Let others listen to the choir of nature.
Wind—rain—birds make their hearts rejoice;
They hear the silver melody with rapture—
I hear the lilting music of your voice.

THE TIME IS rapidly approaching when the pretty Spanish senor-itas with their mantillas, their high combs, equally high heels, coquettish fans and tambourines, which we unconsciously associate with our ideas of South American life, will have disappeared, their place taken by the ultra-modern "dapper-per."

For South American girls, we read, have learned to accept motion pictures as their criterion of styles and deportment.
The screen is an authority beyond dispute, and the actions of their favorite stars are watched very closely in order that the little senor-itas may "go and do likewise."
Alas for the lovely Spanish hair-dress, with the gleaming black waves gathered high, allowing perchance, one coquettish curl to escape and ripple down the creamy throat, Mary Pickford curls will be seen instead. Gone is the graceful sweep of the mantilla, come is the Paris hat, or even the hopelessly unromantic "tam." Adios, Senorita, —hello, Miss South America.

A REGRETTABLE loss to the world of literature is felt in the death of Austin Dobson, that English weaver of rhymes who was responsible for the introduction into English of the graceful, if slightly artificial French forms of verse.
Death called him at his country home near Ealing, England, on September 2, in the eighty-first year of his age.

Despite the fact that Austin Dobson was a prominent figure in the financial life of London, and a member of the London Board of Trade, his poetic nature was uppermost, and his verse, far different from the vers libre of today, in its metrical perfection and its careful rhyming, exemplified the best forms of sonnet, rondeau, rondel, ballade, triolet and villanelle. The greater part of it has been gathered in one volume issued by English publishers.

D. A. R.'s to Hear Assistant District Attorney

This season's first meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. Ella Campau, 801 French street tomorrow afternoon.
With a brief talk upon the constitution of the United States, which Assistant District Attorney C. N.
Mozley has kindly consented to give,
together with the musical numbers, a most interesting program is anticipated. It is hoped that all members will be present to enjoy both the program and the social hour immediately following.
Mrs. Campau, Mrs. Bartholomew and Mrs. Whitted will be hostesses.

Miss Helen Kirker Is Honored Guest at Lovely Party Near Fresno

Miss Helen Kirker, daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kirker, 850
Towner street, was the inspiration of a lovely informal evening affair one evening this week, given at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosher, near Fresno where Miss Kirker taught at the Fortuna school the past two years.
Games and music furnished the evening's entertainment, after which dainty refreshments were served.
The guests included the present teachers of the school, the Misses Ethel Barbour and Alice Elder, and the pupils who attended the school during the two years in which the honoree taught in the district.

Methodist Juniors to Have Hallowe'en Frolic

All of the children of junior age of the First Methodist church are anticipating a happy time at the King's Herald's meeting at 602 Fairview avenue tomorrow afternoon.
There is to be a surprise program followed by Hallowe'en fun.
Children living in the north part of town are asked to meet at the church at 2:15 p. m. where transportation will be provided to take them to the place of meetings.

Ebell First Travelers

The first Travel section of the Ebell society will meet next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Dawes, 1413 North Spurgeon street.
Every member of the section is urged to be present.

Ebell Literature Section of Tustin to Meet

The Tustin Literature section of the Ebell society will hold their first meeting of the year next Tuesday afternoon, October 4, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles Bowman, Laguna avenue, Tustin.
Subjects for the afternoon's study are to be the works of James Branch Cabell and Amy Lowell.

Mrs. Laura Brandebury Hostess at Dinner

The program committee of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church was very happily entertained yesterday at a chicken dinner at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Laura Brande-bury.

Those enjoying her gracious hospitality were:
Dr. and Mrs. John Oliver, Mrs.
Fannie Lash, Mrs. Horace Palmer,
Miss Ella Richter and Mrs. A. J.
Lasby.

The afternoon was spent in arranging the programs for the missionary society for the coming year. This society has just closed a most profitable year, not a little of its success being due to the excellent programs which are presented at the monthly meetings, it is said.

Odd Fellows Initiate Six

The Odd Fellows conferred the initiation degree on six candidates at their regular meeting, held last evening in the I. O. O. F. hall. The names of two men were also voted upon and accepted to be taken into the order at a later date.

Mr. Orville Morrison
Weds Arkansas Girl
at Portland, Oregon

Friends of Mr. Orville Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Morrison, 1120 E. Washington street, were surprised to learn today of his marriage, on September 3, to Miss Lucy Moore, of Arkansas, the wedding taking place in Portland, Ore., where Mr.
Morrison went four years ago for his health.

He is at present connected with the Fin company, Sixty-first and Stack streets, Portland, has regained his health, and is doing splendidly.
"Tiny Spud," as Mr. Morrison is more familiarly known here, since his days of high school football prowess, is one of Santa Ana's own boys, having been born and educated here, and his many friends wish him much happiness and success.
Only "Big Stud" Morrison remains without the ranks of the benedicta, and he, too, is away from the home fire, in Los Angeles, making his mark with the Newmark Wholesale Grocery company.

OWENSMOUTH—Old beans are going out at a rapid rate and the new crop is beginning to arrive in the warehouse, according to Manager Gschwind. There is an active though not very high market on beans this year and it looks like the new crop will move off rapidly if the growers are inclined to take the prices offered.

Dundas-Martin Corporation
Honors S. A. Sales Force
With Banquet and Awards

Mr. Maurice McElree, manager of the local office of the Dundas-Martin corporation, was host Wednesday evening at a sumptuous banquet given by the corporation in honor of several of the local honor salesmen, in the gold room at James'.
Covers were laid for twenty-five, including the following honor salesmen and their wives:

Messrs. and Mesdames George Ri-
Howard Lucy; and saleswomen,
Mmes. Alice Duke and L. I. Bowles.
Mr. McElree was assisted by his wife and his capable secretary, Miss Sunshine Murphy.

Mr. George Riley won the honors for the evening in a contest displaying originality and wit.
Miss Murphy entertained with several piano solos and Mr. Paul H.
Phillip gave three banjo numbers, one of which was an interpretation of the first piece ever played on a banjo, being played for the first time before Queen Elizabeth of England.

The evening was featured by the presentation of the awards of the corporation for the splendid work done by the sales force.

Pennants were presented to the office in general, designating that the Santa Ana sales force has surpassed all other offices on the coast in quality, service and production.

Mr. Lucy was given a beautiful diamond stick pin for having attained the highest percentage among the local salesmen and women. He also won promotion as a manager.

Mr. Mennes, who was second highest, received a gold watch and promotion as a manager.
Other members of the sales force who assisted in putting Santa Ana "over the top" were Mrs. Bowles and Mr. Kyle, who were presented with silver medals. They were among the ten highest producers of the organization.

Mr. McElree presented each of his guests with clever favors in the form of books, which will be of use to each of his guests in carrying on.

Tanlac Accomplishes Remarkable Results in Geo. H. Nickels Case

Prominent Wisconsin Man Says Tanlac Promptly Relieved Him of Bad Case of Stomach Trouble of Six Months' Standing—Gains 27 Pounds and Feels Fine As a Fiddle.

George H. Nickels

It is an unquestionable fact that Tanlac is now being more widely endorsed by well known men and women than any other medicine on the American market. One of the latest to testify is George H. Nickels, well known lecturer, residing at 227 Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Tanlac has not only completely restored my health, but I have actually gained 27 pounds in weight," said Mr. Nickels in referring to the remarkable benefits he had derived from the medicine.

"For something over six months, my stomach was very badly disordered. I suffered terribly from indigestion and dyspepsia. At times I would be in great distress and I would invariably experience an uncomfortable bloated feeling for hours after eating. I had no appetite scarcely and the little I ate would often make me deathly sick. My head ached until I felt like it would burst and I was so nervous I trembled like a leaf. When I got up in the mornings, I was so weak and dizzy, I couldn't trust myself to walk around and I just hurt all over.

"Tanlac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition for I am now enjoying the very best of health. My appetite is splendid. I relish my meals. Everything agrees with me perfectly. The nervousness, headaches and dizzy spells are all gone and I never have an ache or pain. I am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful good Tanlac has done. It has no equal."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by the Rowley Drug Co.

JUDGE COX TO HEAR ASSAULT CHARGES MADE BY TEACHER

Charges of battery filed against Irvine H. Love, Brea oil worker, by W. E. Fanning, teacher in the Brea schools, will be heard before Justice J. B. Cox tomorrow at 10 a. m.

At the preliminary hearing today Love pleaded not guilty.

The charges grew out of an alleged assault on Fanning by Love after the teacher had punished Love's son, one of Fanning's pupils.

SEEKING TO AID WOMAN IN HUNT FOR $85,000

United Press Leased Wire

WENATCHEE, Wn., Sept. 30—Relics of pioneer days, which may lead to the discovery of the hidden place of $85,000 in gold hidden about 40 years ago by the father of Mrs. Eliza Turtle, formerly of Salem, Ore., have been uncovered by two Grant county, Washington, men.

The finders are seeking Mrs. Turtle that they may assist her in locating the buried treasure.

The cache was unearthed on the banks of the Columbia river nine miles from Quincy. Mrs. Turtle's father buried the gold during Indian troubles. She, a girl at the time, was a member of the party. She has searched for years for the cache, which contained, she said, the secret of the hiding place of the treasure near by.

Saddles, legal papers, jewelry and other articles were discovered in the cache, hidden by the party of miners en route from the then newly discovered gold field in British Columbia to their homes in Oregon.

ONE NEW OIL WELL STARTED IN WEEK

But one new oil well was started in Orange county during the week ending September 24, as shown by the weekly bulletin of the department of petroleum and gas of the state mining bureau.

That one well was started by the George C. Wents Oil syndicate at Richfield.

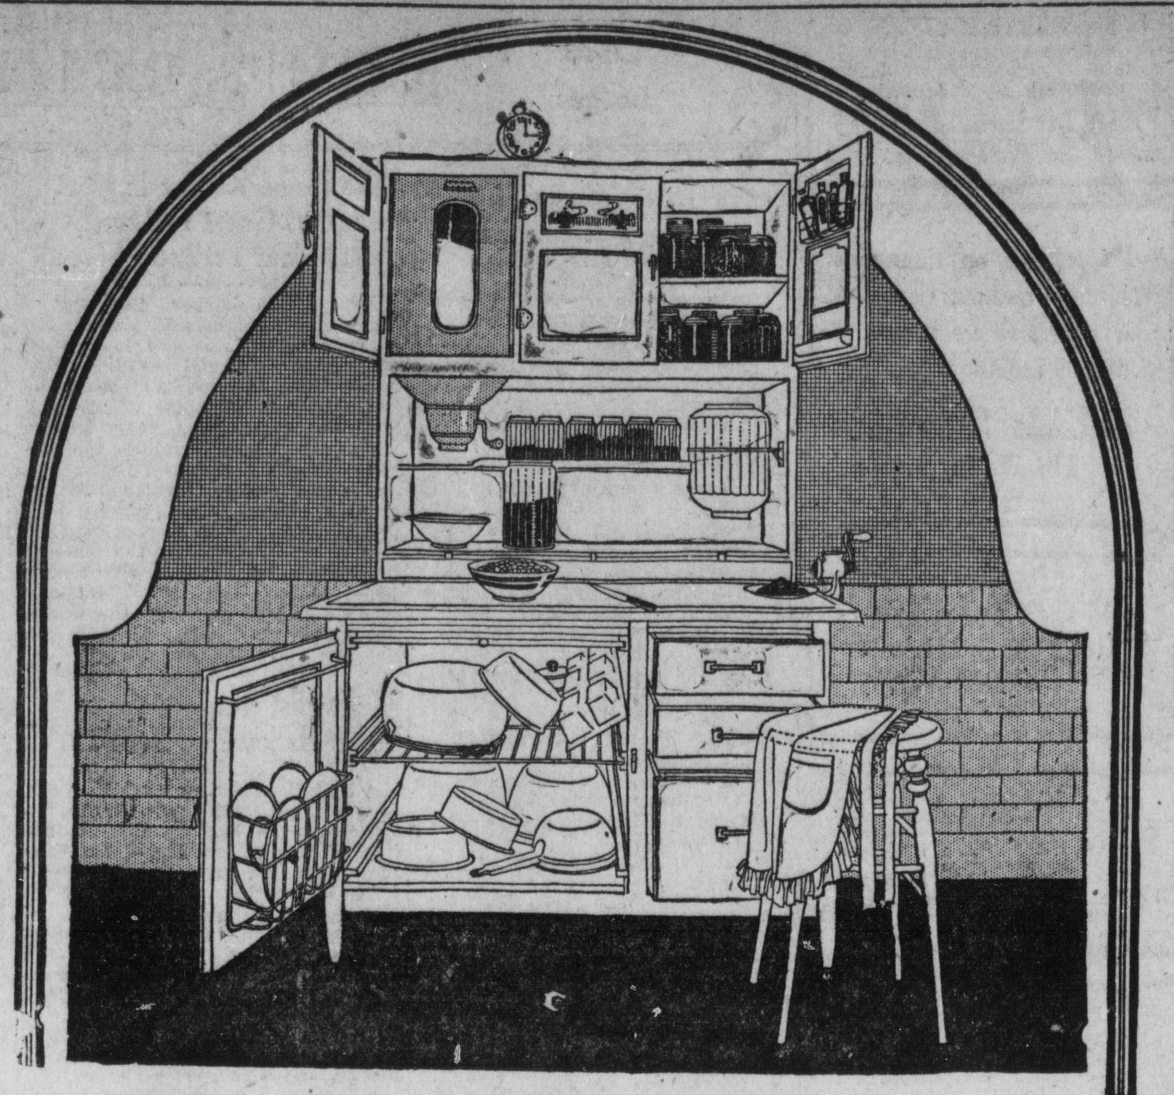

Wells tested that week for water shut-offs were: At Huntington Beach, Machris Bros. syndicate, Eddystone Oil company, and two for the Union Oil company.

Wells listed for deepening or re-drilling were: Petroleum company, Huntington Beach; Wonder, Richfield; Amalgamated, Huntington Beach; Columbia, Brea-Clinda.

During the week in the state 14 new wells were started, as against 17 the week previous. The total number of new wells started in the state this year is 1036 as against 640 to the same date for last year.

DESERTED WIFE WINS DECREE FROM 'Y' MAN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 30—Mrs. Mary Woodson Shippey today was in possession of a divorce decree from Lee Shippey, Missouri post and Y. M. C. A. worker, who was followed home from France by the mother of his "love child," Madeline Babin.

Following an all-day hearing, wherein Mrs. Shippey, a newspaper woman, was on the stand several hours, Judge Johnson of the circuit court, granted her the decree, the custody of the Shippey child and $100 a month alimony.

Shippey, represented by attorneys, is now said to be in Tampico, Mex., with Madeline, to whom he was alleged to have referred in poems as "my little love in Arcady."

OIL LAND FIGHT IN COURT HERE IS SETTLED

With Carl Hankey, of Sunset Beach, retaining a half interest in five acres of disputed oil land at Huntington Beach, Frank L. Purinton, of 2036 North Broadway and O. J. Guilbert, of San Juan Capistrano, securing title to a one-third interest in the land and with W. M. Smith of 826 Lacy street, local manager for Guggenheim company, obtaining a one-sixth interest, the legal battle over title to the five acres is declared off.

A settlement out of court has been concluded. The signing of papers brings to an end a case involved in a tangle of circumstances. The situation as first presented on the filing of the action involving the property indicated that Hankey had sold a two-thirds interest and also a one-half interest in the property, making seven-sixths that he had apparently agreed to deliver, one-sixth more than physically possible.

Carl Hankey, son of the late J. A. Hankey of Santa Ana, several years ago bought five acres of land near Huntington Beach. He remained on the place for a time, trying to make a living. Finally Hankey left and went to work as foreman for a desert ranch owned by A. J. Crookshank, president of the First National bank of Santa Ana.

Oil was struck at Huntington Beach, and the desolate five acres Hankey had bought assumed a golden hue. Hankey, with owners of other acreages, gave a community lease on 42 acres to the Western Union Oil company.

The transactions that resulted in the action in court took place the day before the Western Union struck one of the big wells of the new beach field.

Hankey signed a paper under which he agreed to trade to Purinton and Guilbert a two-thirds interest in his five acres in return for twenty acres of walnuts and oranges at San Juan Capistrano, worth $30,000, Hankey to assume a $10,000 mortgage standing on the San Juan Capistrano ranch.

That same evening Hankey signed an agreement to sell to Smith a half interest in the five acres. He stated that he understood that he had until the day following to reject finally the San Juan Capistrano deal.

Hankey Sued
Purinton and Guilbert, with L. A. West and J. A. Harvey as attorneys sued Hankey to compel him to deliver a deed to a two-thirds interest in the property. Smith was named as a defendant for the reason that he claimed an interest. Bishop and Wellington appeared as attorneys for Hankey.

In the settlement out of court, Hankey obtained the San Juan Capistrano ranch, assuming the $10,000 mortgage upon it. He deeded a one-third interest in the five acres to Purinton and Guilbert, and paid them in cash, notes and property an equivalent of $9,500. Smith was deeded a one-sixth interest.

Royalties of $1200 that had been held up pending the outcome of the suit were distributed half to Hankey and half to Purinton and Guilbert.

JEWES PREPARE TO OBSERVE NEW YEAR

Thirty families, comprising the entire Jewish faith of Santa Ana, are preparing for the coming of Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, which will be ushered in Sunday evening, October 3, and the Day of Atonement, which will be observed October 12.

Services in Santa Ana will be held at Lawrence hall, Fourth and Birch streets, with Dr. Charles Lerner, of San Bernardino, officiating. Rosh Hashanah will be observed as a holy day from Sunday evening, October 2, until the evening of the following day. Among orthodox Jews, a second day of Rosh Hashanah is also observed October 4.

The New Year's day, as observed by the synagogue, is not a day of rejoicing such as in vogue at the beginning of the secular year. It is the Day of Remembrance, and among American Jews is defined by a high spiritual message enjoining greater devotion to God, expressed in public worship. Among orthodox Jews, penitential prayers are recited during a period of four weeks.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is marked by the traditional fasting. It also denotes a revival of confidence in the eventual triumph of God's love, justice and the brotherhood of man.

Services in Santa Ana will be conservative and all of Jewish faith have been invited to attend.

They will be as follows:
Rosh Hashanah—Sunday evening at 6; Monday morning at 8; Monday evening at 8; Tuesday morning at 8.
Yom Kippur—Tuesday evening, October 11 at 5; Wednesday morning, October 12, at 8.

Made a Hit With Him

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists.

SEVENTEENTH STREET SUB-GRADE COMPLETE; CONCRETE NOW READY

The sub-grade for West Seventeenth street between Prospect avenue and Newport road, a distance of 5700 feet, is practically finished, and by the end of next week the contractor, B. R. Ford, of Santa Ana, will be pouring concrete.

Pouring concrete will progress just as rapidly as weather conditions permit. Ford expects to be able to pour 700 lineal feet per day. In preparing for paving, gravel has been hauled for making sub-grade over adobe portions of the street.

$85,900 IS RAISED FOR HOTEL PROJECT

With the sum of $85,900 raised by popular subscription for the Fullerton community hotel, prospects for soon completing the required sum of $152,000 were today judged to be particularly bright in that city.

The drive for funds opened Tuesday under the auspices of a committee headed by J. Charles Thamer and composed of men prominent in the city's affairs, among them C. C. Chapman.

The site for the new hotel was selected several months ago when arrangements were completed with the city authorities for the purchase of a site near that of the proposed new city hall. This site was property owned by the city and situated on the corner of Spadra and Wilshire avenues, right in the heart of the community.

The sum of $22,000 was allowed for the site and $130,000 for the building, plans for which have been completed by the firm of Eugene Durfee and Frank Benchley, architects.

When completed, the hotel will have fifty-five rooms, twenty apartments and ten shops or business rooms. It will be of Spanish Colonial design and will harmonize architecturally with the city hall soon to be built and the home of the Fullerton Improvement company, each of which is near it.

R. E. Durbin, of Long Beach, has already been granted a lease on the completed building, and if present plans are carried out he will be given possession within six months. Building operations will be underway within sixty days, it was declared.

EXPERT BIG CROWD AT FIREMEN'S BALL

Four hundred Santa Ana enthusiasts are expected to flock tonight to the new fire hall to disport themselves at the firemen's dance. Success has attended the sale of tickets, which has been conducted by members of the fire department.

Fred Chapman's five-piece orchestra will furnish the music necessary to make the occasion a festive one. Those who lean to modern music will be rewarded by attending, while those, also, with a more classic taste will not be denied.

Fund derived from the affair will be used for equipping the club room to make the leisure moments of the firefighters more endurable.

The dance will be held, "rain or shine," declare the firemen. If the weather is not inclement, the lower hall will be used. If it rains, the dance will be held upstairs.

Tickets, it is announced, may be obtained at the fire hall this evening.

HAS INVESTMENT WITH LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS

"GENERAL SECURITIES CORPORATION, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue, is investing over $200,000.00 in this city during the current year, in financing local business firms," Freeman H. Bloodgood, speaking of the business of the corporation said.

"This corporation confines itself exclusively to financing dealers of good repute, located in country towns of less than 20,000 population who handle certain lines of automobiles acceptable to this corporation, all of them moderately priced and possessing a sound re-sale value.

"Subsequent to the order of the federal reserve board of October, 1920, classifying automobile paper, finance companies have been specially organized principally owned by the stockholders of banking institutions or of automobile manufacturers, and these finance institutions are now taking care of this business."

WIFE FILES CRUELTY CHARGE IN DIVORCE

Cruelty in the form of abusive language and threatening actions charged by Sarah E. Blum against Frederick H. Blum in her suit for divorce, filed today in the superior court through her attorney, D. G. Wetlin, of Orange. Blum is proprietor of a shoe repair shop at 101 East Sixth street, Santa Ana.

The bill of particulars states that the couple were married in Bellefontaine, Ohio, October 31, 1912. There is one child, Charles Frederick, 7, for whose support a "reasonable sum" is asked.

MEXICAN HELD HERE ON BURGLARY CHARGE

An injured air and protestations of innocence were wasted on Justice J. B. Cox by G. Montra, Santa Ana Mexican, who today finds himself separated from liberty by $1,000 bail and a charge of burglary which must be heard in the superior court.

At Montra's preliminary hearing, Fernando Vargas testified that the former looted his home of jewelry and clothing. Other witnesses, Maria Santos, Maria Vargas and J. L. Elliott, were also on the stand.

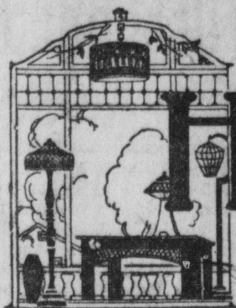

Montra declared that he was not the guilty man, but stated that he was "ready to take his medicine." The court informed him, dryly, that "the doctor" is in the superior court, where Montra was held to answer to the charges.

Horton's Great Annual Home-Makers Furniture Sale

Offers Unlimited Chances To Save

The Buying Public Was Simply Waiting for this Announcement

THE confidence which the buying public has in this store was clearly demonstrated in the first few days of this sale. In the opening announcement, we stated frankly the prices and description of a vast assortment of furniture, leaving no doubt as to the reductions made. The buying public was waiting for just such an announcement as this. People wanted to buy furniture, but they also wanted to be sure that they were going to buy it at the lowest possible price.

Among the outstanding values offered are BED DAVENPORTS at $37.50 — covered in high grade imitation leather; all-cotton MATTRESSES at $6.45; 4 x 7 GRASS RUGS at $2.95; genuine LEATHER ROCKERS at $23.50; William and Mary DINING TABLE and six leather seated CHAIRS for $79.

DRAPERIES are on sale at bargain prices; AX-MINSTER RUGS are $35; a beautiful Wedgewood GAS RANGE, side oven, is $42.50; REED ROCKERS are reduced to $12.75; high grade PRINTED LINOLEUM is on sale at 82c and 95c a square yard; and HUNDREDS of other values equally as good.

WHEN the boulevard unrolls like a ribbon under your car—and your motor purrs with satisfaction—and glides up hill and down dale, mile after mile, with that smoothness which only perfect lubricating gives—this, indeed, is the "poetry of motion" which flows from every drop of "Ventura" Paraffin-Base Motor Oil.

ARRAIGNMENT IN MELON SLAYING IS DEFERRED

Arraignment of Hugo Wetzel, Placentia rancher, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Fred Ebbert, Anaheim boy, was continued to next Friday, October 7, when Wetzel appeared today before Judge R. Y. Williams in Department 2 of the superior court.

The case having been scheduled for hearing in Department 1 before Judge Z. B. West, who is temporarily absent, Judge Williams continued the case in order to allow Judge West to fix the time for hearing. Wetzel was represented in court by Attorney Clyde Bishop of Santa Ana.

Fred Ebbert, whose death is responsible for the charges against Wetzel, was shot and killed August 31 in Wetzel's watermelon lot.

ELEVATOR SHAFT FALL VICTIM DIES

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the First Methodist church, Orange, for Philo E. Parsons, 70, well known resident of that city, who died Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock from injuries which he sustained nearly two weeks ago when he fell down an elevator shaft of the Kogler Hardware company there.

With his death went all possible chance of learning the actual facts surrounding Parsons' fall, September 16, from which time he had been semi-conscious. It is assumed that he fell from the first floor to the basement, when he stepped into the empty shaft, thinking the elevator was on the main floor. The elevator was on the second floor and the injured man was found when one of the store clerks heard groans coming from the elevator pit.

Examination showed fracture of the arm, hip, nose and possibly of the skull, and his condition was so precarious that it was impossible to operate. Attended by two physicians and nurses for two weeks, Mr. Parsons remained in stupor until death relieved him.

Mr. Parsons is survived by his wife, Mrs. May Parsons, two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Herrin of Chicago, and Miss Elsie Parsons of Orange, and a brother, Mr. Wallace Parsons, also of Orange.

He was born in Nowtane, Fon du Lac county, Wis., and came to Orange in 1909. There he engaged in the plumbing business for six years. In 1915 he accepted a position with the Kogler Hardware company, which position he was filling when he met with the fatal accident.

ASK $245 IN SUIT FOLLOWING CRASH

Damages amounting to $245.20 are asked in a complaint filed today by C. E. Beck, of Orange, against Fred Hutter, Santa Ana, as the result of an automobile collision alleged to have occurred on the Newport boulevard September 7. D. G. Wetlin, of Orange, represents the plaintiff.

In his complaint Beck alleges that reckless driving by Hutter caused the accident. Both cars were said to be traveling in the same direction when it took place.

$2.48 ERROR IN AD CAUSES BRISK SALE

Silk Duveltyne at $3.50 a yard caused a stampede at the Reinhaus Department store this morning in response to an advertisement in The Register yesterday.

Through an error this price was quoted. It should have been $5.98 a yard.

"Silk Duveltyne at $5.98 is an exceptional value," said Reinhaus this morning, "and when the printer who set the ad made it $3.50, he evidently did not appreciate the value of silk duveltyne."

The corrected advertisement appears again today.

The young men are from Kamehameha college, Honolulu, and their principal soloist, Keamoku A. Louis, has just completed a successful tour of the United States.

The program will offer a variety of native songs and selections on native instruments, as well as classical and popular music, and will feature solo, quartette, quintette and chorus work by the singers. Fifteen num-

LAUNCH NEW BATTLE IN SUIT INVOLVING SECOND HAND TRUCK

Notice of appeal from the judgment of the superior court was on file here today from Roy B. Lambert and Ira C. Lambert, plaintiffs in a suit against F. E. Valentine and W. A. Ashenfelder, involving possession of a second hand truck, valued at $500.

The defendants who operate a repair shop, were given judgment in the case August 5, the court sustaining their claim to possession of the truck, based on a bill for repairs amounting to $163.87 of which $140 was alleged to remain unpaid.

The plaintiffs in their complaint, alleged that they had sold the truck to Basilio Lopez on time payments. Lopez, it appeared, had taken the truck to Valentine and Ashenfelder for repairs. Failing to pay more than $23 on the repair bill, return of the truck was refused him and the plaintiffs.

The appeal will be filed in the second district appellate court. Grounds for the appeal are given as alleged insufficiency of evidence, alleged errors of law at the trial and excessive damage appearing to have been given under the influence of alleged passion and prejudice.

LAGUNA ANXIOUS TO GET 1922 PAGEANT

Whether Laguna Beach will be the scene of the Peace Pipe pageant in the fall of 1922 has yet to be decided, it was declared today by citizens of that community who stated that a proposition made by the business manager of the pageant, F. P. MacPherson, was being considered by J. J. Frazer of Mossa, author of the pageant.

MacPherson and E. E. Jahraus, who took the leading role in the Laguna presentation of the pageant in August, attended the second annual reunion of the Mossa Auld Lang Syne association held last Sunday near Escondido, at which time they conferred with Frazer relative to the second production of the pageant at Laguna Beach.

Frazer wished to give the matter further consideration as he has received offers from San Diego and Los Angeles to present the pageant as well from Woreland Castle, where it was successfully given in 1915 and 1916.

It was declared that Laguna residents feel that their offer will meet with favorable consideration from the author, and that those who so must enjoyed the presentation of the pageant this year will have the opportunity of seeing it in the same beautiful amphitheater again next year.

CITY'S BANKERS SEE L. A. MEET AS BOOST FOR SOUTHLAND

Orange County Also Will Benefit from Gathering of Financiers

SAY 'WHITE SPOT' HERE Impressions of So. Cal. Prosperity to Be Taken Back East, View

Financiers visiting the annual convention of the American Bankers' association in Los Angeles, to be held next week, will gather the definite impression that Southern California, including Orange county, is "the only white spot" in the United States during the present industrial crisis. This is the view generally expressed by local bankers who expect to attend the Los Angeles convention.

E. L. Crawford, cashier of the California National bank, who, together with E. E. Vincent, president of the institution, expects to attend the conference, declared that Orange county will come in for a great deal of advertising as a result of the parley on the Pacific coast.

"Eastern financiers," he declared, "will carry home the impression of our good climate, our good roads and of our evidences of prosperity."

To Open Bankers' Eyes W. B. Tedford, vice-president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Savings bank, asserted that interchange of ideas at the bankers' convention would open the eyes of Eastern financiers to conditions prevalent here.

"They will realize," added Alexander Brownridge, cashier of the same savings bank, "that Southern California, Orange county in particular, is the only white spot in the United States."

Eastern capitalists will learn the country better, was the view of E. B. Sprague, cashier of the Orange County Trust and Savings bank.

While the main purpose of the convention is to afford bankers throughout the country an opportunity to view its resources, familiarity on their part with this section of the republic may draw closer interest in its potentialities, Sprague believed.

Here Are Details of Studebaker in Register Contest

There are nearly three hundred miles of paved boulevard in Orange County and hundreds more miles of beautiful drives beyond, reaching up into the mountain fastnesses and down to many scenic spots along the coast. Are you enjoying the motoring pleasures offered by these unending miles of paved roads? And even if able to drive away occasionally, wouldn't you like to enjoy the pleasures more in a car of your very own—a Big Six Studebaker, seven-passenger touring car model?

This splendid car has a wheelbase of 126 inches, Hotchkiss drive, semi-elliptic springs front and rear, improved semi-floating, spiral bevel gear drive with full taper bearing equipment, centrifugal force pump circulating system, tubular radiator, splash and positive distribution lubrication system, separate unit starter and generator system, large headlights with deflecting and diffusing lenses, speedometer light, tonneau light, aluminum leather-faced cone clutch with anti-spin brakes, and a gear ratio of 3.71 to 1.

In color it is a Brewster green with gold striping on wheels and fenders, and the upholstery is genuine hand-buffed French plaited leather. Anti-skid cord tires, built-in thief proof transmission lock and ignition lock, and one-man Gypsy top, with large rectangular bevel French plate glass window in rear, and curtains which open with the doors, are other features. The equipment includes: straight side, slanting windshield with storm proof ventilator base, carpeted foot rest in tonneau, silver faced speedometer, jeweled eight-day clock of perfect accuracy, genuine American black walnut steering wheel, black walnut finished glove box in back of front seat, complete set of tools, double tire carrier in rear, and inside and outside door handles.

Isn't that a car worthy of your best efforts during the next few weeks? We believe it is, and The Register is offering it to you if you have the persistence and stick-to-it-iveness to place yourself at the top in The Register's great circulation-building contest which will end on the night of November 7.

This car will be driven away by the Orange county man, woman, boy or girl who succeeds in getting the greatest number of votes, and these votes are given for new and renewal subscriptions to The Register.

The list of contestants will be published next week and if you are going to try for this beautiful car, you must get started at once before it is too late. The Contest Manager will be glad to give you all information.

EBELL SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE IS PLANNED HERE

November 2, 3 and 4 at Yost's theater, under the auspices of the Ebell society, a big society vaudeville entertainment will be staged, from which the proceeds will go into the Ebell club house fund.

The entertainment is called "A Night at Coney Island," and, under the direction of Mrs. Carolyn Staley,

'FOSSILS' PLAN BIG RALLY AT C. E. CONCLAVE

Delegates from All Over County to Attend Three-day Convention

Introducing the Fossil association. For it is thus that the alumni members of the Orange County Christian Endeavor society style themselves—at least, the more humorously inclined of them.

All over Orange county Fossils will be "oiling up their joints," to quote "Orange Juice," monthly publication of the county Endeavorers, next Friday afternoon in readiness to come here for the first session of the three-day convention of the county society.

The alumni members will hold their annual reunion beginning at 5:30 p. m. at the United Presbyterian church, corner Sixth and Spurgeon streets. Hand-shaking and "memories of ancient days," again to quote "Orange Juice," will be part of the program of the social hour, which is being arranged by Miss Edith Cutler, Orange, president of the Alumni association.

After the social hour, the visitors will start for the basement at 6:30 p. m., where a banquet will be served by the women of the church.

Plan Laugh Fest. Following the banquet there will be a "laugh and talk fest," presided over by the Rev. W. E. Spicer, of Brea.

The following day's sessions are scheduled to begin at 6:45 a. m., with what is described as a "Sunrise Hill-top Service," at Red Hill, Lemon Heights.

Following this the crowd will go to Tustin, where hot coffee and chocolate, buns and roast beef hash will be served without charge.

At 9 a. m. will begin the convention session proper, at the Tustin grammar school, with conferences scheduled as the main procedure of business. Resolves will be declared at 11 a. m. and indoor baseball games will be in order.

At 12:30, following a cafeteria lunch, the delegates will reassemble, again at the Tustin grammar school, to listen to State Christian Endeavor authorities expound subjects pertaining to C. E. activities.

Supper will be served at 5:30. At this time convention business will be transacted, and officers will be elected.

Brown to Speak. At the evening session contributions to go toward maintenance of C. E. activities during the coming year will be solicited. Howard L. Brown, former state president of the society, will deliver an address.

The following day, Sunday, there will be rallies for alumni, seniors, intermediates and juniors, and many conferences. C. E. officials hope that when the registration report is made it will reveal one of the largest and best Endeavor conventions ever held in the county, especially from a standpoint of attendance.

It was announced that tickets to the alumni banquet must be purchased in advance, that proper preparations may be made. Those having them for sale should report by letter or telephone to Miss Edith Cutler, R. F. D. No. 3, Orange, and phone No. 41-R. She asks that reports be made by Monday, October 3, or by Tuesday at the latest.

How to Get There. As to the sunrise service on Red Hill, Lemon Heights, it was stated that the best way to get there is to go straight out Seventeenth street, which crosses Newport road, and continues straight on to the hill where the Easter services are held. Or one can go via Newport road and turn at the Seventeenth street corner. Machines coming from the north may come to Orange and El Modena, turning south at the corner just west of El Modena, down past Hewes park, and then turn to the left and follow the hills around to Newport road, thence a short distance down to the Seventeenth street corner.

All the old and new members of the county union executive committee, that is, the county officers and superintendents, as well as society presidents, and intermediate and junior superintendents, are asked to plan to attend the Sunday noon conference, beginning at 12:15 just after the adjournment of the morning service. Everyone is asked to bring a basket lunch as restaurant accommodations in Tustin are inadequate. This conference will be led by Harry C. Allen, state field secretary, and will deal with plans for county union work for the coming year.

For Visiting Delegates. Tustin can provide a limited number of entertainments, so that delegates from the outlying districts may stay over Saturday night at Tustin. The societies to which this offer is extended are those of Brea, Placentia, Yorba Linda, Fullerton, Anaheim, Westminster, Alamitos, Huntington Beach, and San Juan Capistrano.

For reservations, write Miss Mabel McFadden, 906 North Main street, Santa Ana.

Convention programs, badges, advertising and other expense, speakers' traveling expenses, etc., are to be met by registration fees and offerings. The fee is made the small sum of 15 cents so that every one may register, even though attending for only one session. The size of the convention is judged by the registration, so every one is urged not to neglect registering. Juniors may register free.

The convention program follows: Friday, October 7. 5:30 p. m.—Alumni reunion and social hour, United Presbyterian

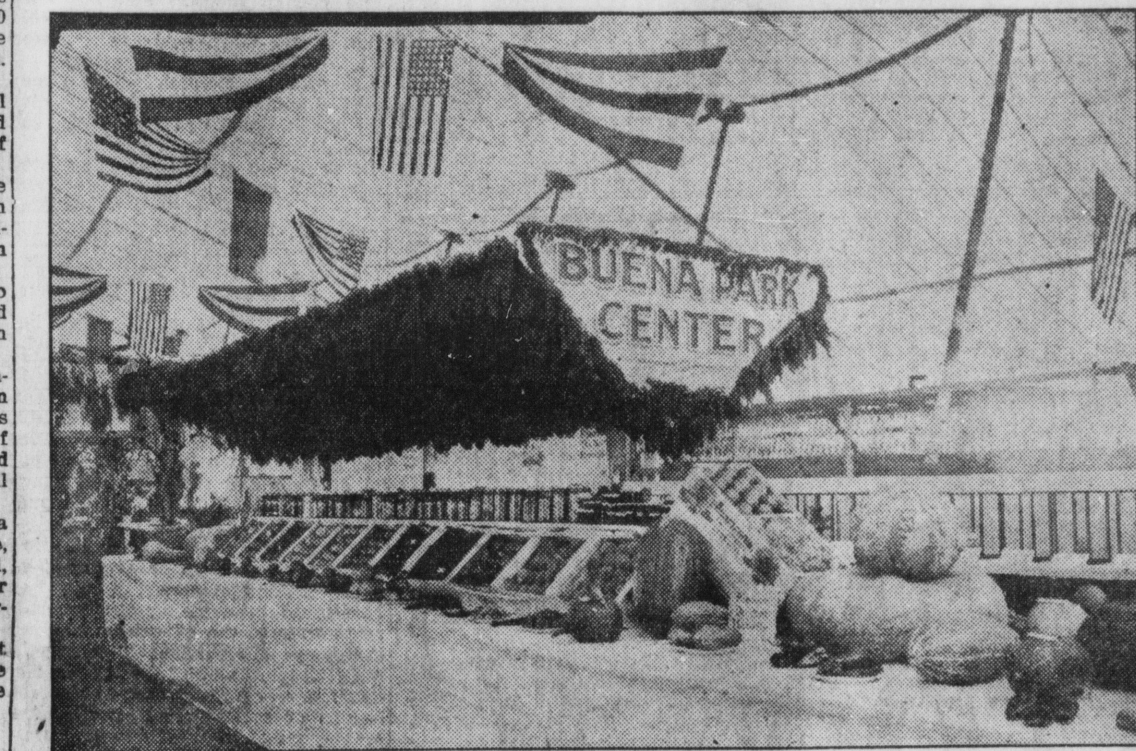

EXPRESS REGRET AS REGISTER'S FAIR ENDS

Women of City Praise Big Better Homes Exposition Held at Armory

Regret that a splendid experience had ended—this seemed to be the keynote of the final afternoon of The Register's Better Home exposition which came to a close this afternoon at the armory.

Mrs. Florence Austin Chase, lecturer and demonstrator, who has quite won the hearts of the women of Santa Ana during her five days here, delivered her last lecture of the series, choosing as her topic, "Home Management," which she elaborated into a discussion of household accounting.

The program opened with the usual musical numbers, Mrs. Nellie Calender Mills, delighting everyone present with her violin rendition of "The Old Refrain" (Kreisler's arrangement). Mrs. Arnold Peek's accompaniment was also noteworthy. Mrs. Peek also proved an excellent accompanist for Mrs. Walter Leecraft, who sang the lovely "Song of

My Soul," (Joseph Carl Brill) and "The Star" by James H. Rogers. The program proved a delightful one and made a charming finale to a week of splendid musical numbers with which the guests of The Register have delighted their audiences.

Cake Mixing. After the all-too-brief musical features, Mrs. Chase gave her talk and later demonstrated the mixing and baking of cakes, followed by the different icings and fillings used in cake making.

It was with a feeling of keen regret that her hearers gathered around the speaker at the close of the demonstration to express their appreciation of her work here, to bid her farewell and extend their wishes for a happy and equally satisfactory week at Long Beach, where she will go from here.

The Thursday afternoon program as arranged by Mrs. Chase, gave a great deal of pleasure to her hearers who evinced it by the eagerness with which they asked questions. A change was made in the preliminary music program when the illness of Mrs. Theo. Winbigler's father made it impossible for her to appear in the vocal numbers which she had planned to offer.

Miss Holly Lash very graciously consented to appear and was delightful in two numbers, "The Night Wind," by Roland Farley, and "Will o' the Wisp," by Charles Gilbert Spross.

Mrs. Chase remarked to a bystander yesterday afternoon that she was very pleased with Santa Ana women because they seemed so eager to hear everything she had to say and had no hesitation in asking questions.

Mrs. Chase devoted fully one half hour yesterday afternoon to answering questions, which were passed her upon slips of paper. Several oral questions were asked in the course of the lecture.

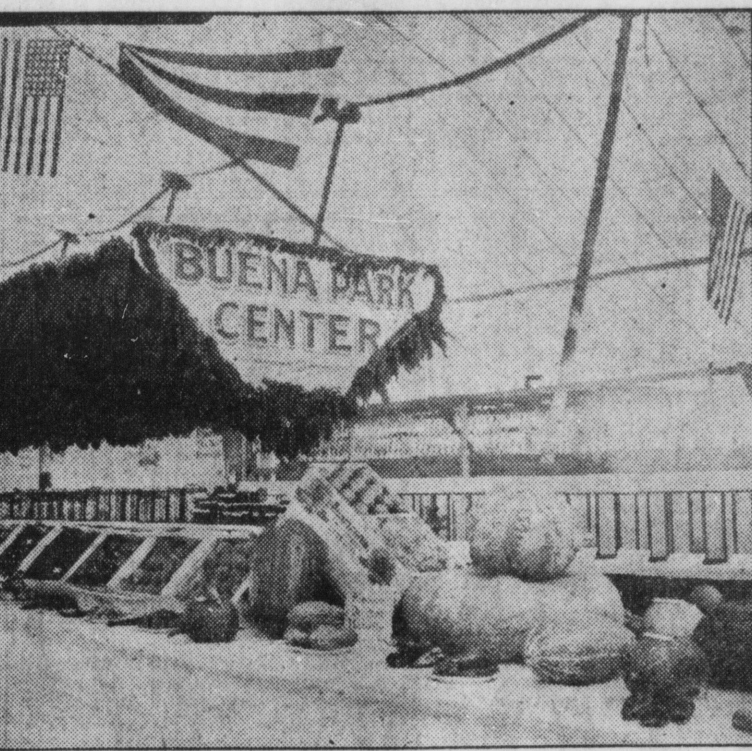

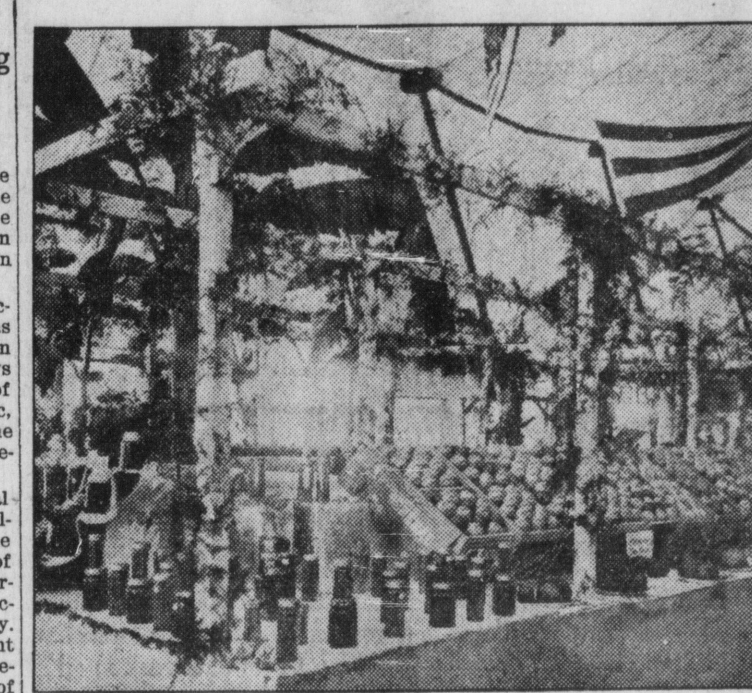

And Mrs. Chase's eagerness to help is genuine. Yesterday morning she graciously went out to a new home that one of the daily visitors at the lectures is building and offered suggestions for the interior decorating that should be purchased. It is evident that one week is much too short a time for Mrs. Chase's visit. The consensus of opinion seems to be that Mrs. Chase should reside permanently in Santa Ana.

Talking of music and books, Mrs. Chase made the appeal to her audience to have good books and music in the home, for they bring sunshine and character, and mean much to a family of growing children.

"Give them their fairy tales," said Mrs. Chase, "and tell them about Santa Claus and the Easter rabbit, and then when they grow older, get them the character-building books. Give the boy a boy's book that contains man-building fiber, not the 'Diamond Dick' and bloody tales. But give them books—not a book."

COUNTY TAX TO TOTAL NEARLY $4,000,000

Orange county's tax roll will soon start rolling in—nearly four million dollars strong.

The drive upon the taxpayer's roll will begin October 17, the date on which the first installment of taxes falls due, and County Tax Collector J. C. Lamb now has a force busily at work totaling assessment rolls and writing tax bills which are expected to be mailed October 17. Every taxpayer with an address on file will receive his bill by mail, the collector's office announces.

According to figures furnished by the county auditor's office, the taxes this year will total approximately $3,820,698.49. This is an increase of nearly half a million dollars over last year's tax total, which was $3,347,956.96.

A material increase in the number of Orange county property owners is likewise noted on this year's assessment rolls, which show in the neighborhood of 2,000 new assessments. The total this year is about 26,850.

The collector's office is not yet in position to give out information concerning individual tax bills, it is stated, but hopes to be in readiness to do so by October 17.

The first installment of taxes will become delinquent December 5, the second installment on the last Monday in April.

SIGNS DEFAULT ORDER IN $4,000 NOTE SUIT

Order to enter default of C. Ray Long and Vera May Long, codefendants with Robert and Elsie Graham and the Merchants' National bank of Los Angeles in a suit brought by Fred Hoffman, has been signed by the superior court. The action involves suit on a $4000 note alleged to have been given by the Grahams and secured by a mortgage on property near Los Alamitos.

LONG BEACH BANK IS AWARDED $2,128

Default judgment in favor of the plaintiff is entered in the suit to recover $2128.50, brought by the Long Beach Trust and Savings bank against J. B. Dixon in superior court. The judgment includes a principal sum of $1570 represented by an alleged promissory note, together with costs and fees.

DUCK SHOOTING SEASON OPENS TOMORROW

Five-o'clock—that's the hour. And the day is tomorrow, Saturday, October 1.

It's the opening of the duck season that is the subject of this dissertation.

There isn't a duck hunter in shooting distance of Orange county who for weeks hasn't had the date firmly fixed in his mind.

But yesterday evening more than one of them read in the paper that the season would open today.

Involutionarily, almost hysterically, the hunter reading the article grabbed for his gun. He hadn't expected to go until Saturday morning, and here it was proclaimed that the season would open "tomorrow."

The next instant, however, he realized that it was a mistake. The date remained unchanged. It was still Saturday, October 1.

The article that was published giving the opening to the season as today was written with the expectation that it would not be published until today. By accident, inadvertence or something like that, it got into the paper a day too soon.

An accident like that is somewhat akin to shooting a big bird that in the fog looks like a mallard only to find, when it has dropped, that it's a mudhen. Accidents like that do happen.

TAX DODGER DRIVE STARTS NEXT WEEK

Delinquent income taxes and fraudulent returns will occupy the attention of the income tax department here, beginning next Monday. Elmer B. Burns, Orange county representative of the department, having given final opportunity for taxpayers to make an eleven-hour payment, is prepared to push the investigation of delinquent cases or those where fraudulent income returns have been returned. The income tax department expects to conduct a campaign of vigorous prosecution, it is understood.

Severe penalties are attached to delinquents and still more drastic punishment may be meted out to the dodger class. First, there is a 25 per cent penalty, then an additional penalty of 5 per cent. In addition to these penalties the law provides a fine of $1,000 for making fraudulent returns or for failing to make any

THOUSANDS SEE PRIZE WINNER DISPLAYS AT GREAT FAIR

Buena Park's Farm Center Exhibit, Given First Place, Praised

COSTA MESA IS SECOND

Tustin Products Are Given Third Award; Attendance Vast

Undeterred by intermittent drizzles and by overcast skies early this morning, thousands of men, women and children again flocked today to Huntington Beach and the great Orange County fair, where the prize-winning exhibits installed by centers of the Orange county farm bureau were the centers of admiring throngs.

Exclamations of delight and approbation were heard around the products display arranged by the farm center of Buena Park, which was awarded first prize of $125 on a total of 94 points.

No less enthusiastic were the remarks made by the crowds that viewed the Costa Mesa center exhibit, winner of second prize of $65, with a total of 85 points.

Tustin farm center, winner of third prize with 81 points, also came in for a great amount of favorable comment.

Fourth prize in the farm center division went to Garden Grove, which carried off $15 with a total of 79 points; and fifth prize of $10 was given to Yorba Linda, with 74 points.

In the individual horticultural exhibits division, first prize of $25 was awarded to Don J. Dodge, Costa Mesa; second prize of $15 to W. J. Crouch, Santa Ana; and third, of $10 to I. M. Von Schrititz, Santa Ana.

The judges were Robert Hodgson, farm advisor of Los Angeles county, and Dr. D. S. Fox, head of the agricultural department of the Pasadena high school.

In judging these displays, variety of products shown was given a score of 15 points, quality of products shown 40 points, quality in proportion to display, 15 points and artistic arrangement of display, 30 points, making a total of 100.

Thousands Attend The attendance on the first day of Orange county's mammoth products exposition was 4000 and that yesterday was 5000, officials announced today.

Today's attendance, it was confidently predicted, would exceed the 5000-mark, despite somewhat unfavorable weather.

It was school day today at the fair, and hundreds of children attended, numbers of schools in the county having declared a holiday.

Members of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce were among the enthusiastic visitors at the big fair yesterday. Officials of the forthcoming fair at Riverside were entertained also.

Former Governor Foster of South Dakota was also among the visitors yesterday.

Awards in the pet stock department were made as follows:

SAILOR BOUND OVER
AS DRUNKEN DRIVER

Held in jail in the absence of $300 bail, V. Kasper, 22, a sailor from the battleship Idaho, is today awaiting trial in the superior court on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

The preliminary hearing of Kasper before Justice J. B. Cox brought Dr. R. A. Cushman, J. I. McGee and J. A. Porter into court to testify regarding Kasper's alleged reckless driving, which was charged as responsible for two collisions near Coast Mesa last Saturday.

mantelpieces, Mrs. Chase preferred a candlestick at either end with perhaps a mirror or appropriate picture hanging on the wall in the center and maybe a vase or two. Mrs. Chase's recipe for the mantel is, no more than five articles, with three preferable. Pottery was pronounced very good taste. Pretty pieces of pottery, she declared, add to a mantelpiece as a jewel does to a well-dressed woman.

The culinary lecture yesterday pertained to desserts, hot and cold, including pastry and the setting of the table.

Mrs. Chase emphasized particularly the kinds of desserts to go with the various kinds of dinner.

A tart acid dessert like lemon or apple pie goes very well with the renowned "Mr. Jiggs" dinner. Corned beef and cabbage, and a fluffy pudding with light lunch were among Mrs. Chase's dessert discriminations.

Mrs. Chase demonstrated the making of a very delicious dessert which she called Russian cream, as follows:

Here's Recipe.

One pint of sweet milk, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 cup of sugar, 1 tablespoon gelatin, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Put milk in top of double boiler and heat it. Beat yolks until light and add sugar and beat again. Add hot milk to it a very little at a time so as not to cook the egg. Cook in double boiler very slowly until it leaves the spoon. Take gelatin and add enough cold water to dissolve it and then pour into cooked mixture and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Place in cold water and when cold add beaten whites of eggs. Pour in molds.

Another tasty dish which seems very popular was Mrs. Chase's recipe for mock plum pudding, which she also demonstrated. The recipe:

Mock plum pudding—1 cup grated raw Irish potatoes, 1 cup grated carrots, 1/2 cup melted shortening (Molico), 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups of seeded raisins.

Put grated raw potatoes and carrots in bowl and mix into them the melted shortening. Sift dry ingredients together and add to the foregoing mixture and beat. Fill container which may be either baking powder tin or mold, two-thirds full and put in steamer and steam. Hard sauce should be eaten over the plum pudding.

The many visitors at the exposition yesterday received a treat. The Baker Bakery company, which has heretofore been giving out hot buttered rolls to the exposition patrons gave generous portions of hot apple pie, which, when the Excelsior Creamery company added liberal scoops of orange and vanilla ice cream, made a delectable and welcome dish. Sam Stein furnished spoons and plates.

WOMEN DELIGHTED WITH REGISTER EXPOSITION.

The attitude of the feminine portion of Santa Ana's population toward The Register's Better Home exposition and the value of the lectures given during the past week by Mrs. Chase has been expressed in the following brief opinions voiced by a few of those who acted as patronesses on the occasion:

Mrs. John Clarkson, president of Ebelle club—There are wonderful advantages to be derived from such a demonstration and Mrs. Chase as a speaker was most interesting. We found the displays of furniture both beautiful and artistic, and, in fact, enjoyed all the booths as well as the programs.

Mrs. E. E. Remsburg—Familiar with Mrs. Chase's reputation not only as an entertaining speaker but also as an unusually clever cook, I was delighted when I learned that Santa Ana women were to have the benefit of a series of lectures by her. Every one seems to feel that the Better Homes exposition has been a worthwhile feature.

Mrs. J. E. Gowen—We found Mrs. Chase to be all that report had promised and feel that the lectures and demonstrations were of interest and value to all who heard them. The interchange of ideas was a valuable experience.

Mrs. W. B. Williams—The whole affair was fascinating. One disliked to miss a single afternoon, and the varied program of music, lectures and demonstrations was not only pleasing but was, I believe, of inestimable value to the women of the community.

Mrs. E. B. Trago—Mrs. Chase is a delightful speaker and her lectures were most valuable. The little informal forum when questions were asked and answered was a phase in which I was keenly interested.

Mrs. R. W. Townsend—The lectures were a great help to young housekeepers, some of whom are none too well versed in affairs of the home. The visual demonstration of the cooking recipes proved especially interesting to me and I feel that everyone gained new ideas.

Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh—It seems to me one of the finest features ever introduced in the city, and I wish we might have it regularly. I am quite sure that all the women who attended join with me in a feeling of gratitude to The Register.

CUBAN SUGAR CO. ASKS
$10,000,000 CREDIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Cuba Cane Sugar corporation requested its debenture bondholders to subordinate their interests to a new $10,000,000 credit, offering a consideration an increase in the rate of debenture interest from 7 to 8 per cent.

In asking for the assent to this credit, which will run for one year, the directors called attention to the unfavorable conditions prevailing in the raw sugar market. That of the 2,900,000 bags of sugar produced from the 1921 crop 2,170,000 bags remain unsold.

Quality Furniture For 30 Years

—For more than 30 years Chandler's have consistently been giving good furniture values, day in and day out.

—Some of the furniture purchased here in the pioneer days of our business is still giving satisfactory service.

—We have steadfastly refused to employ any sales methods bordering on the sensational. We have always been content to confine ourselves to conservative and constructive merchandising—selling furniture that would give lasting satisfaction.

—Here quality is the first consideration. The goods are priced fair and reasonable right at the beginning so no price cutting is necessary to lure you into the store.

—If, however, market conditions warrant a reduction, price revisions are made accordingly.

—This policy has gained for us the confidence and respect of Orange County residents. They are attracted here by the wide selection of designs and feel assured of the utmost value.

GERMANY HAVING TRADE REVIVAL M'RAE'S VIEW

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 30.—France and Belgium are coming back at a healthy pace, but no country in Europe shows rejuvenation so pronouncedly as does Germany.

This is the declaration of Milton A. McRae, of Detroit, Mich., and San Diego, Cal., one of the best known and most successful newspaper publishers in America. McRae has just returned from an intensive study of conditions in Europe. At present he is visiting his daughter, Mrs. William Alden Smith Jr., here.

Here are some of the high lights in an enlightening interview given by McRae today:

"The biggest man in Europe is Dr. Thomas G. Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, and his country has the most promising future of any of the new nations carved out of the war's geography.

"Rathenau, minister of reparations, and Chancellor Wirth, 40 years of age, are the dominating figures in Germany which is the most successful country in Europe today, barring problems of government finance.

"The Germans didn't know they had been beaten in the war until they paid their first big reparations bill. But they know it now and are setting themselves with bulldog determination, to work out from under their retributive load.

Are Coming Back
"France is 'coming back'—at least superficially; but she is suffering from 'hyperemia.' She is dominated by a natural hate of Germany; but she is also dominated by a groundless military fear of Germany. No living generations will see another German war of aggression.

"Belgium today appears to be Germany's only industrial rival in Europe. Her hatred of Germany exceeds even that of the French.

"Vienna, Austria, is probably suffering more from the war than any other city in the world. The Austrian people would like to join the German republic but the Treaty of Versailles forbids.

"The Blue Danube is an even bluer proposition than Strauss, the waltz king, ever made it. The best name for these frictional border states would be the 'United Hates of Europe.'

"Hungary has more troubles ahead than any other country in Europe. It is bitterly divided against itself and rebellious. I believe a majority of the people prefer a monarchy.

"Much as England dislikes Germany, the English are striving for renewed German trade; and the trend of continental business is suggested by the fact that the great Babcock & Wilcox company, largest boiler makers in the world with headquarters in England, report more trade through their German branch than any other.

"America stands supreme in the good opinions and the affections of all the nations across the sea. We are the model and the inspiration for all of these peoples. President Masaryk of Czechoslovakia calls his home the 'white house' in frank emulation of Washington—and this typically trademarks the average foreign attitude toward the United States.

"Though we in the United States know little or nothing about Czechoslovakia, I believe it is assured a great future; and for this future, Masaryk will deserve a credit that will make him the Washington of his country.

Germany at Work
"If Germany can escape internal political disruption—that is her grave danger—she shortly will be a great factor once more in the economic life of the world.

"But it is a different Germany. Militarism is dead. There is a total change of atmosphere in Berlin. No longer do soldiers with clanking swords walk down the main streets pushing pedestrians aside. You do not see a soldier in two or three days walking about. This is the most impressive change to foreign visitors who are familiar with the general attitude of the people. The number of unemployed in Germany today is less than 300,000 and is being reduced every week. The fact that the country is in debt—a debt which I believe it will pay, at least for many years to come—and the fact that a large part of its industrial output is mortgaged for years to pay for her war, do not oblige Germany of yesterday.

"Meanwhile, Germany is busy working on its job. The night-life orgies in Berlin are in striking contrast to the general attitude of the people.

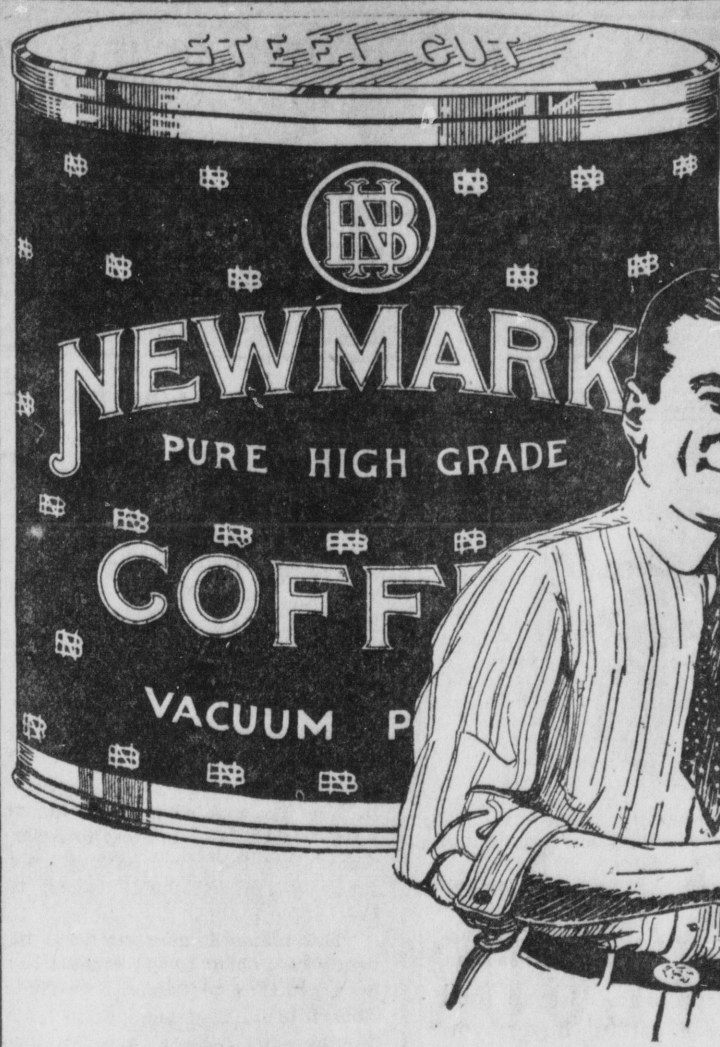

Harvest has been Good

"During the past summer, Germany has had a great harvest. The output of grain increased—exactly opposite to the record in France and Britain. In its industrial centers, men are working 12 hours a day. Other countries quite uniformly seem anxious to do business with Germany—first because of cheap prices, second because of efficient products. There is every justification for German optimism—barring governmental difficulties and a further decline in the exchange value of the mark. And that, of course, is a tremendous 'if.' President Ebert, self-made and a Socialist, 48 years of age, seems to be fitting into his place; but the strong men of Germany are Chancellor Wirth, a college professor and the secretary of the Labor party, and Minister Rathenau, a rich and well-educated business man who inherited from his father his position as president of the General Electric company of Berlin."

M. A. McRae has many friends in Santa Ana, where he has visited frequently as a guest of former United States Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan and the senator's sister, Mrs. Ella Campau.

SEEK MYSTERY MAN AS WIFE FOUND DEAD

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The police were searching for a mysterious "Mr. Fay" today, following discovery of his wife's body in a closet of a rooming house.

The woman, clad in a nightgown, and with white stockings tied about her jaw had been dead about a week. The closet where the body was found was in the attic. The Fays rented a room August 25. The only room from which there was access to the attic was occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. Boulanger, apparently friends of the Fays.

Fresh peanut brittle, hot salted peanuts, delicious gum drops; all 10c half pound. Where? Lion Candy Kitchen, opposite Sam Stein's, of course.

ARBUCKLE WITNESSES IN HIGHTOWER CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Names already familiar from their connection with the charges against Roscoe Arbuckle, comedian, which followed the death of Virginia Rappe, will get into the court records again next week, it was announced today.

Zey Pyrron and Joyce Clark, who were two of Arbuckle's guests at his "Labor day party," have been subpoenaed as witnesses for the state in the trial of William Hightower, charged with the murder of Father Patrick Heslin, kidnapped Colma, Calif., priest, according to District Attorney Swart of San Mateo county, who will prosecute Hightower.

SAYS ENGLAND WILL ALWAYS HAVE BOOZE

MELBOURNE, Australia, Sept. 30.—Lord Northcliffe, British publisher, meeting with labor leaders here told them he did not believe the labor party could win the next British elections. Prohibition never will be adopted in England, he told the labor men. Hon W. M. Hughes, Australian premier, declared that an election in England on the Irish question is inevitable. The government announced that a delegate now is en route from France to arrange details of an Australian-French reciprocal tariff. Fishing Tackle—Hawley's.

PERSHING REACHES ARMY OF OCCUPATION

COBLENZ, Sept. 30.—General Pershing arrived here, accompanied by Major General Henry T. Allen, commander of the American forces in the occupied territory, who went to Treves to meet him. A detachment of cavalry acted as escort. Soldiers lined the streets.

The composite battalion from the American forces in Germany, which will accompany General Pershing to Paris and London for ceremonies of decorating with the congressional medal of honor the graves of the French and British unknown soldiers, is a full strength unit organized from the best trained troops in the American command. The battalion will be commanded by Major R. O. Barton, and will be composed of companies A, B and C.

SAMOA: LAND OF ROMANCE IS CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Reported desire of Samoans formerly under Germany to be assigned to Great Britain rather than to the mandate of New Zealand, as provided in the peace treaty, is of interest to Americans since the other half of these far-away Pacific islands belong to the United States.

"The romantic glamour more recently cast about the Marquesas has been attached to Samoa ever since Robert Louis Stevenson penned his 'Footnote to History' and 'Vailima Letters,' says a bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"Other visitors than Stevenson sing most extravagant praises of Samoa's charms. A New Zealand soldier pictures one of the archipelago as 'an island where a heavy odor of green foliage pervades the air, where there is laughter at the bathing pool, and mellow harmonies at the meeting places, where at every turn the eye meets the glint of the sun on warm, placid waters or travels languorously along the graceful lines of magnificent brown men and women.'

Nature Plays Pranks
"Unusual physical features have much to do with the happy first impression Samoa makes upon its guests. The islands are surrounded, in large part, by coral reefs. These mark out the ribbons of placid water—canals of amethystine blue—which skirt the shore lines.

"On Savai, largest island of the group, is a volcano which began an eruption in 1905 and continued for four years. Volcanoes are responsible for the queer syphon effects along the exposed coast of Tutuila and the southern shores of Savai. Liquid lava cooled in masses overhangs the ocean, forming caves with vertical fissures. Giant billows beat upon these caves, forcing water and air to emerge in soda fountain fashion, through the upright funnels.

"Jet black rocks mark a part of the Tutuila coast, and the white foam of the breakers against these affords another striking natural spectacle. "The first enemy territory to be occupied by the British in the World War was Samoa. Upon arrival of New Zealand forces the Germans announced they would neither surrender nor resist. Announcement was made in the reichstag that 'the Pearl of the Pacific' had been invaded.

"The people of the island add to its lure—whether it be the natives, pure Polynesians of splendid physique and character, unspoiled by alien stock, or the beach combers, those living story books of the South seas.

Balk at Prohibition
"New Zealand's rigid enforcement of prohibition is cited as one reason for the agitation of European settlers for British rule. The United States was a party, with Great Britain and Germany, to the treaty of 1889, which made the islands 'dry.'

"But neither treaty nor the eighteenth amendment apply technically to the Samoan national drink, kiva, which is non-alcoholic, but intoxicating, its effects neither discernible, however, only from the waist down. He who imbibes too freely may lose the use of his legs, but retain his wits. Wherefore sailors mixed the kiva with gin to insure a 100 per cent 'jag.'

"Curious, too, is the method of compounding this beverage. The roots of a sort of pepper plant are chewed by young girls and deposited in bowls, where male youths may pour in water to the proper dilution. The chief kiva chewer in a native village is a sort of permanent queen of love and beauty.

"The liquor leaves an enamel deposit in the bowls, which is susceptible of high polish. The natives believe a similar encrustation occurs in the stomachs of consumers. Indeed one visitor was told that a native addict died because he sneezed too vigorously and his stomach had become so brittle that it cracked.

Beauty Aids of Belles
"Dainty Miss America daubs her nose with a powder puff when she goes forth to conquer; the Siamese belle oils or greases her head and body from the waist up when she appears in evening dress. A closer likeness arises, however, when the latter bleaches her hair with lime, or stains it with red clay.

"Not only are Samoans physically attractive; they are mentally alert, tactable, and bear no grudges, though easy wounded by emotions. One phase of their social organization, a sort of communism which calls for the sharing of any property with him who asks for it, is accounted a handicap in efforts to better their condition. But it has been said facetiously that their political campaign methods might be worthy of emulation. For when a leader of a movement desires to gain support he goes to the abode of the head man of the opposing faction, prostrates himself, and goes through many postures of humiliation, until assent is forthcoming. However, denial of the petitioner is considered an insult and may lead to fighting.

American Interest
"Of the fourteen Samoan islands, but four are important. Of these four Savai, the largest, and Upolu, the most valuable commercially, now are under New Zealand mandate. Tutuila and Manua are possessions of the United States. Tutuila is reckoned the most beautiful of the group, but its significance, especially in view of present day political interest in the Pacific, lies in its possession of one of the best and safest harbors in all the South seas.

DOZEN SANTA ANAS

AT HI-Y MEET, PLAN

That a dozen Santa Anas would be in attendance at the annual HI-Y up conference of the Orange County Y. M. C. A. scheduled to open tomorrow afternoon at Camp Lewis, Santiago canyon, was the opinion expressed today by T. P. McKee, district secretary of the county organization.

Plans were in readiness today for the opening of the conference and different groups will leave their community headquarters tomorrow afternoon at about an hour that all will arrive in camp at approximately the same time and will gather around the supper table to enjoy the first meal prepared and served in camp.

Secretary George S. Chessum, who is in Huntington Beach in charge of the booth at the fair, will not be free in time to accompany the party but will make his first appearance in camp at the early morning service Sunday morning, according to McKee's statement.

MEXICANS ARE SOUGHT

RAIN BRINGS ANXIETY TO PRODUCERS

Following a hot spell starting on Sunday last, rain began falling here early this morning, with a continuous light sprinkle throughout the forenoon.

Bean, beet and walnut growers were keenly concerned as to the probable period of the rainfall, for should it continue for a day or two, with a precipitation of a half-inch or more, damage will result to these crops.

Rain this early in the season is not unusual. September in the past three years has produced some moisture, 1918-19 producing .64 of an inch, with the first showers coming on the 14th, when the fall was .09 of an inch. In 1919-20, rain on the 27th, 29th and 30th precipitated 1.27 inches, .65 of an inch falling on the 30th. Last September, .08 of an inch fell.

Effect on Crops.

The blackeye bean crop of the county is practically all harvested and under shelter. On the San Joaquin ranch the limas have been threshed and are out of harm's way. The only damage that would accrue to growers on the ranch would be to bean straw that they might have intended to save for feed.

It is estimated that fifty per cent of the lima crop of the county is unharvested, some of it not even out. This acreage is in the low lands, where the beans do not ripen as early as on the dry lands.

Should inclement weather continue for several days, with a half-inch or more of rain, beans in the field probably would suffer through the loss of sugar contents by reason of the beans starting to grow again.

Walnut growers would be put to considerable extra expense in taking care of nuts, for they would have to be thoroughly dried, and wet fields would slow up the work of harvesting.

Other crops in the county probably would be benefited by a good rain.

It is not expected, however, that the present storm will continue very long or that it will result in a heavy rainfall.

RIVERSIDE, SAN BERDOO IN PATH OF RAIN

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 30.—Light showers have fallen during the day starting about 7 a. m. In San Bernardino the first rainfall was reported at midnight. This is the first official rain of the new season.

FINISH DETAILS FOR ROTARY MEET HERE

Details of the program of the Rotary presidents and secretaries' conference to be held in Santa Ana Friday and Saturday of next week were announced today by William H. Spurgeon, president. Charles L. Spurgeon, secretary of the Santa Ana Rotary club, and Mac O. Robbins, chairman of the conference committee for the Santa Ana Rotary club.

The two days will be devoted to Rotary activities. Charles B. Mills, of Sacramento, president of the twenty-third district of Rotary, comprising executive officers of clubs which will meet here, is to preside. He has attended the conference of district governors and will bring on the messages sent out from the international convention held in Scotland in June.

The conference will meet at Elks' hall at 10 a. m. Friday, and 9:30 a. m. Saturday. Luncheon each day will be at St. Ann's Inn. Friday, the speaker will be Dr. Henry Kendall Booth, pastor of the First Congregational church of Long Beach, a delegate to the international convention. The ladies will be guests at the Friday luncheon.

At noon Saturday, Carl Rosenberg of Los Angeles, former chairman of the international committee of education in Rotary, will present what is known among Rotarians as his "Block Talk."

An automobile ride and a tea are to be arranged for the ladies of Rotarians who attend the conference.

BIG RACKET RESULTS IN NEAR RIOT CALL AS DOG AND CAN MIX

"Dog or burglar?"

This was the question local police were trying to decide today in explaining the cause of a midnight alarm turned in from 404 West Fourth street, where sleeping residents were aroused and terrified by a terrific noise on the back stairs.

Officer Smithwick, who answered the call, was of the opinion that a dog, investigating the contents of a garbage can at the top of the steps, fumbled the can, causing it to roll to the bottom. All of the evidence pointed to the correctness of this theory.

APPLE FESTIVAL AT YUCAIPA OCT. 7-8

The second annual Apple festival of the Yucalpa valley will be held October 7 and 8 this year. The festival will be devoted to the exhibition and sale of the finest of the valley's products, with its big red apples largely predominating. Opportunity will be afforded visitors to see the unpicked portion of the crop, which is pronounced by many old-time orchard men to be the most remarkable crop of apples ever seen, in regard to uniformity of production as well as quantity of fruit.

In addition to the competitive displays made by individual orchardists and the various packing houses in the valley, there will be various forms of amusements, including an all-star baseball game, a one-act play, booths where the goddess of fortune may be wooed with big red apples for prizes, a one-act play, motion picture, and music by a good band. Cider will be on tap all the time and a big turkey dinner with "country fixin's" will be served Friday evening, Saturday noon and evening.

The festival is given under the auspices of Woman's club of Yucalpa, and the proceeds will go toward finishing the beautiful new club building which has been erected this year. In inviting the public to view the products of Yucalpa valley, its residents believe they are calling attention to what all Southern California should be proud of—its mountain-grown red apples—that are deserving of a fame co-equal with the Sunkist orange, the paper-shell walnut, and the unsurpassed climate.

who will have it in charge here, it has been presented at Riverside, at Long Beach and at other large towns in Southern California, as well as in cities in the North and through the Eastern states.

The Riverside Woman's club made a very comfortable sum from it and the performance there was received most enthusiastically. It calls for a large cast, drawn from the city's best known people, and is a riot of fun.

Arrangements for the production are being made by Mrs. Samuel W. Nau, of Tustin, who is chairman of Ebells ways and means committee.

'HEALER' DRAWS THROG INTO L. A. COURT

The curious who invaded Justice Pollette's court in Los Angeles yesterday to gaze upon "Brother Isaiah" Cudney, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Margaret S. Dunbar, of Pomona, mother of Mrs. Nettie Cantbell, of La Habra, were afforded another opportunity to satisfy their curiosity when hearing of the charges against the "Miracle Man" was resumed this morning.

Thongs surged into the courtroom on both occasions, overrunning the court building and showering the so-called faith healer with flowers. More than 2000 enthusiasts swarmed about the grounds to show their interest in the apprehended mystic. Mrs. Cantbell testified that her mother had been able to eat a hearty meal before ascending the platform where "Brother Isaiah" performed and that when she left she lost consciousness and suffered a chill.

The defense scored heavily, however, during the testimony of Dr. R. F. Rohlfing, of Pomona, who attended Mrs. Dunbar prior to her death. Dr. Rohlfing had been called by the state, but it was during cross-examination by defense attorneys that points on surgery were gained which will be used, it is claimed, to show that death could occur from a number of causes other than those assigned by the state.

The Shoe Sale at Leipsics is for three days only.

The proposed building was far larger than those additions which were made earlier and which were used as a standard of comparison by the board members when they estimated the probable cost of the addition.

"With the larger size and the increased cost of building materials, the project is absolutely beyond us at present."

Efforts at adjusting the crowded conditions at the school to the present space will be made by Principal D. K. Hammond, it was stated.

Other business transacted at the school board meeting was in regard to the appointment of a teacher of English at the high school. Miss Catherine Smiley of East Orange, received the appointment. Miss Smiley is a graduate of Santa Ana high school and Pomona college, and received her master's degree at the University of California.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parialin (double strength) and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this preparation a trial.

Girls! Lemons

BLEACH FRECKLES AND WHITEN SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan bleach, and complexion whitener.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes bleach out and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes.

DUDLEY GETS DRAW WITH SOLDIER BOY

Second Main Event—Young Dudley vs. Soldier Graham, draw.
First Main Event—Jack Martin vs. Johnnie Meyer, draw.
Semi-windup—Leo Houck given unpopular decision over Johnnie Leach.
Special Event—Young Garcia beat Young Burton.
Preliminary—George Elmer stopped Jack Gordon in the fourth round.
Curtain raiser—Young Krankle stopped Battling Neal in the first round.

Young Dudley ought to be a good one to get in a pinch game because all he does is draw.
Last night at the American Legion boxing arena he ran true to form and got a draw with Soldier Graham who was substituting for Chet Neff, in one of the main events of that organization's boxing contests.

The soldier took the first two stanzas and the tar baby the last two.
In the other half of the main event Johnnie Meyer and Jack Martin fought a terrific draw and by far put up the best exhibition of the card.
The tough Meyer hurt his foot and showed his mettle by staying with the hard hitting boy and giving him just as good as he took.

Leo Houck took an unpopular decision from Johnnie Leach in the semi-windup. The bugs were for the Leach end of the argument.

One of those rare surprises where in the beaten man comes through with a key one punch was pulled on the fans. George Elmer was knocked down three times by Jack Gordon and in the third round George arose and popped Jack sending him to see the birdies.

"FOUR HORSEMEN" TO BE SCREENED SUNDAY

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," Metro's million-dollar visualization of the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, is to open at the Temple theater next Sunday afternoon, according to the announcement today by E. D. Yost, manager of the popular playhouse.

"The Four Horsemen" is accredited by critics, ministers, Yale college, and other individuals and institutions, as being the screen's greatest production, as it is said to be a perfect picture for the masses and the classes. Never before in the history of motion pictures has there been such a combination of drama, comedy, pathos, heart interest, thrills and action blended into a single attraction, it is claimed.

The picture cost more than $1,000,000 to produce, and boasts a cast of 13,000 people, including fifty of the screen's foremost players. The spectacle was directed by Rex Ingram, and adapted for the screen by June Mathis.

"The Four Horsemen" is being handled as a road show by Metro Pictures corporation, and the presentation at the Temple theater promises to be a theatrical event of paramount interest to Orange county playgoers and those who have read the book and are eager to see the characters and scenes in animated form.

L. A. RUNAWAY LAD BEING SOUGHT HERE

Santa Ana police were on the lookout for George Wood, 14, a runaway lad whose home is at 934 Columbus avenue, Los Angeles. George started out coastless to see the world, clad in a light shirt, tan trousers, gray cap and brown shoes. Light blue eyes, dark brown hair and 103 pounds weight complete the boy's description.

YANKEES INCREASE LEAD IN FLAG RACE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—By defeating Philadelphia yesterday, 5 to 0, New York tightened its hold upon the American League lead. As Cleveland was beaten by Chicago, the Yankees need but one more victory to clinch the pennant.

Shawkey held the Athletics to four hits, three well scattered. The Yankees garnered nine hits, three of which were for extra bases, off Harris.

New York 5 9 2
Philadelphia 0 4 2
New York—Shawkey and Schanz; Philadelphia—Harris and Perkins.

SOX DUMP INDIANS

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—With Dick Kerr pitching masterly, Chicago virtually ruined Cleveland's chances in the American League race yesterday when he shut out the world's champions 5 to 0.

Kerr celebrated a day set aside in his honor by holding Cleveland to six hits and with the aid of sensational fielding did not allow a Cleveland player to pass second.

Cleveland 0 6 2
Chicago 5 10 2
Cleveland—Sothern, Caldwell and O'Neill; Chicago—Kerr and Schalk.

BOSTON WHIPS SOLONS

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Boston hit Walter Johnson hard in the sixth inning yesterday, scored four runs on five hits and defeated Washington, 5 to 2.

Washington 2 11 1
Boston 5 6 2
Washington—Johnson and Pichnich; Garity; Boston—Jones and Walters.

OIL COMPANIES SUED FOR TITLE TO LOTS

Suit to quiet title on two lots in the Golden State tract, situated east of Anaheim, is on file in the superior court, with Bismarck von Wedelstaedt and others as plaintiffs, and the Placencia Oil company, the Heffern Oil company, E. W. Holcomb, John J. Nordstrom and others as defendants. Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhaus are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

CONLEY VS. DALTON IN ANAHEIM FIGHTS

Main event—Steve Dalton vs. Billy Conley, 155 lbs.

Semi-windup—Chick Brown vs. Kid Lamb, 145 lbs.

Special event—Jimmie Lloyd vs. Delhi Fredericks, 138 lbs.

Preliminaries—Benny Heller vs. Frankie Duffy, 120 lbs.

Kid Louie vs. Young Sam Lanford, 120 lbs.

Curtain raiser—To be announced from the ring.

Referee—Billy Darnelly, all contests.

Tonight will tell whether Billy Conley is a false alarm or not.

The rough boy goes against Steve Dalton in the main event of the Anaheim Athletic club's boxing contests, at 8:15 p. m.

Conley is an fighter of no mean ability, but with the men he has been matched against lately couldn't make much of a showing on account of their long range style.

Old Man Stevie knows all about the four round game and takes them as they come. If Conley can get a draw with this tough old boy he can say that he is a good man. The bugs will agree with him!

Chick Brown, said to be the pride of Huntington Beach, will take on Kid Lamb in the semi-windup.

The Mary's Little Lamb part of the "doings" is a long ways from the bottom of the ladder.

Delhi Frederick's reappearance in the boxing game will find him matched against Jimmie Lloyd. This part of the card is a special event and should be interesting from the fact that no one has knocked Jimmie Lloyd out yet although he has been with everything but the referee.

No doubt the unannounced part will be satisfactory to all concerned and there is absolute assurance of action in the other two preliminaries. Heller is one of the best 120 pound boys in this part of the country. Kid Louie has been going strong.

SANTA ANA ELEVEN'S DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL

Poly's band of football warriors lost a practice game to Chaffee Union's seconds yesterday on the grounds of the latter, the final score being 12 to 0. Both team a hard game, but the winners were aided by fumbling on the part of the Santa Ana players. This was the one big fault of the Santa Ana team and this is expected to be overcome with more practice.

While the first squad was being drubbed by the Chaffee warriors, the Santa Ana seconds and the 130-pound lads were defeating the Huntington Beach first team on the local grounds to the tune of 12 to 0. The seconds played the first half and the 130-pounders finished up for Santa Ana.

PITTSBURGHERS DROP PAIR TO CARDINALS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—The Cardinals eliminated Pittsburgh as a pennant hope yesterday by winning a double header, 5 to 4 and 3 to 1, the afterpiece going but six innings due to darkness. The first game ended in the tenth inning. By the double victory the Cardinals provided themselves with the chance of tying the Pirates for second place, which may be accomplished by winning the remaining three games from the Pirates.

(First game)
Pittsburgh 4 10 2
St. Louis 5 10 2
Pittsburgh—Cooper and Gooch;
St. Louis—Doak, North and Clemmons.

(Second game)
Pittsburgh 1 5 2
St. Louis 3 5 1
Pittsburgh—Morrison and Broom; St. Louis—Sherdel and Clemmons.

EXPERT PROMISES SURPRISE PRODUCER

The Dolke-Thomas syndicate is building a big near reservoir hill at Fullerton and expects to start drilling soon. Located on property repeatedly turned down by the big companies, a geologist who located the well promises a surprise in the way of a three-thousand-barrel well. In the Brea field, the Columbia Oil company's Menches No. 2, a deep well drilled to 5389, has now been on production three weeks and is not doing any better than 10 barrels a day. On the Orange the Columbia has No. 7 in the oil sand at 3900, and Pico 2 in the hard sand at 3500. Puente 1-A, the deep test well, is making hole slowly, drilling is now at 700. ANGELS SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE PROGRAM

PORTLAND, Sept. 30.—Los Angeles split even with the locals in a two-game session here yesterday, but retained its hold on first place as a result of Seattle trimming San Francisco. Los Angeles won their first game, a twelve-inning affair, 5 to 3, but dropped the second when the locals went on a hitting spree and scored eleven runs against eight for the visitors.

(First game)
Los Angeles 5 11 0
Portland 3 1 1
Los Angeles—Aldridge and Sanger; Portland—Ellison, Johnson and Baker.

SENATORS WHIP TIGERS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Sacramento jumped into second place in the Coast league race here yesterday by defeating Vernon, 3 to 2, in twelve innings. Vernon outhit the visitors, but could not get hits when they would count for runs. Mitchell held Sacramento to eight hits.

Sacramento 3 8 2
Vernon 2 12 0
Sacramento—Kunz, Fittory and Cook; Vernon—Mitchell and Murphy.

SEATTLE TRIMS SEALS

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 30.—Seattle made it three straight in the final series with San Francisco by winning, 10 to 7, a game full of thrills and uncertainties. It was nip and tuck up to the eighth, when the Indians drove in three scores. Stompt and Kamm both got homers, the latter when two men were on.

San Francisco 7 14 2
Seattle 10 13 0
San Francisco—O'Doul, Crompler, Lewis and Yelle; Seattle—Jacobson, Francis, Dailey and Adams.

SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

OAKLAND, Sept. 30.—Salt Lake and Oakland divided a double-header yesterday, the Bees losing the first, 6 to 1, and winning the second, 3 to 1.

(First game)
Salt Lake 1 6 3
Oakland 6 11 2
Salt Lake—Levens and Jenkins; Oakland—Kremer and Read.

(Second game)
Salt Lake 3 6 2
Oakland 1 6 3
Salt Lake—Kallio and Byler; Oakland—Jones, Arlett and Koehler.

MUCH ACTIVITY IS NOTED AT LA HABRA

LA HABRA, Sept. 30.—The ring of hammers, and the song of saws are heard in every part of La Habra. Home Acres boasts of six new homes either being built or ready for the occupants. Eden acres, a new tract south of town, recently opened, has two new homes. Miss Mable McGee, of Brea, has bought in Walnut Acres, and is having a pretty home erected. Several new houses in the Beck tract are completed, one a double apartment house.

In the Little addition is a couple of new homes and there are several other homes just about ready for their owners. One of the most unique is the mission house of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Drake, on Irma street. There will be a number of houses erected at La Habra Park square, just as soon as the grade is established, and water is piped to the tract.

THE NEXT SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
PRACTICAL NOTES PREPARED FOR THE REGISTER

Lesson for Oct. 2. Acts 18:1-11. Paul at Corinth.

"He departed from Athens, and came to Corinth."—v. 1. It is easier to reach with the gospel of Jesus Christ the dregs of humanity living in "Drab Hollow" than it is to convince the self-centered, self-satisfied, mansion-domiciled millionaire colony on "Gold Hill" of the truth and importance of Peter's statement, when he said of Christ "In none other is there salvation." Paul had failed, comparatively, when he presented the claims of Jesus Christ to the cynical, mocking, pharisaical Athenian philosophers on Mars Hill. Then he came to Corinth, but "in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling." Success gives buoyancy, while failure is depressing. Dejected, Paul was facing in Corinth one of the—seemingly—hardest problems of his life. It often happens that the "impossible" is found to be the easiest task. The Corinth of Paul's day, built, within the last fifty years, near the site of the old Corinth, destroyed B. C. 146, was a modern city of 400,000 with every vice, in an exaggerated form, that belonged with a decadent civilization. To illustrate: The temple of Venus had 1,000 harlots who acted as priestesses! If this was the religious condition, only imagine what must have been the secular status of the people of this great city into which Paul came all alone. A man of stouter heart than he might well have been excused for fearing the favorable outcome of his mission. One thing, most of all, resulted in Paul's success. Years later, when writing a letter to the church he had founded in Corinth, Paul said, "I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." In 1 Cor. 6:9, 10 Paul enumerates a long list of the grossest sinners—"fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, effeminate, abusers of themselves with men thieves, covetous, drunkards, revellers, extortioners," and then all, "and such were some of you; but ye were washed, but ye were sanctified, but ye were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the Spirit of God." And, furthermore, Paul calls these men and women, lifted up out of the dregs of "Drab Hollow," through his preaching of the gospel to them,—"saints!" The lesson is plain and one that every modern preacher should heed; Nothing but the story of Jesus Christ can bring real success, for nothing is success in the ministry but the saving of men and women from sin. Discussing from the pulpit subjects that, for the moment, have caught the popular attention, may be a great temptation, but to yield to it is ultimately to fail, and in a matter of such vital importance, "ultimately" is "soon." Today thousands of thoughtful men and women are, for this reason alone, non-church attendants.

LAGUNA DRILLERS
ARE ENCOURAGED

The Laguna Oil association's No. 1 is now drilling at 3000 feet in hard sand. The change from grey to hard sand is encouraging.

At 2125 the Nusanita Oil company's No. 1 is standing cemented. Drilling out is scheduled for the latter part of the week.

The Wirscher and Gary Oil company has two wells drilling. No. 1 is at 2425 and drilling in brown shale, the first brown shale ever found in this section of the field. W. A. G. is at 1325 in clay.

The Long Beach Consolidated Oil company's Newport well is now making hole at 3050 feet where the sandy shale is showing some oil and a quantity of gas.

ARREST JEWELER ON $1500 THEFT CHARGE

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30.—H. J. Leavitt was arrested in Sacramento last night, charged with having stolen $1500 in jewelry from a number of Los Angeles jewelry companies.

The arrest was made by Detective J. McKinney, and H. L. Stosky, salesman for the Philip Wolfman company of Los Angeles.

According to Stosky, Leavitt, on the pretense of opening up a jewelry store, had secured the $1500 in jewelry and then absconded from the city.

best for him who offers it. Throwing boomerangs at what is intended to advance morality and righteousness is poor business, even when considered from a selfish standpoint. You may hit what you aimed at, and then the rebound will hit you hardest of all. These boomerangs throwers at Paul and his message didn't have time to get out of range of the missiles they had hurled, till they came back with tremendous force and bowled them over. Gallo drove Paul's accusers away from his judgment-seat, and then those who sympathized with Paul "laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue"—perhaps Paul's chief accuser—and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallo cared for none of these things. Such is invariably the result of throwing boomerangs at good people and just causes.

"The Lord said unto Paul...I have much people in this city."—vs. 9, 10. The Lord said this of Corinth, a city noted for its wickedness—where to "Corinthianize" meant, as all knew, nothing but to debauch! Oh, no, the "box." They never are all that. Maybe some of them even burned incense to idols! But they were sincerely living and loving according to their best ideals. They loved most the things and the people that were good, pure, noble. Thus they were "feeling after God," as Paul said on Mars' Hill. Where such love is there is kinship with God—for "God is Love."

SPEND $55,000
ON NEW TRACT, IS PLAN

ANAHEIM, Sept. 30.—A. A. Mills, North Los Angeles street dairyman, has announced definite plans to begin shortly with the subdivision of twenty-five acres at the northeast corner of Los Angeles and North streets and the installation of $55,000 worth of paving, sidewalk and curb improvements. Mills will put in these improvements himself.

Mills has taken the first steps toward extending the city limits to include the property. If the legal procedure is not too long, he will wait until inside the city before starting the improvements. Otherwise, he will start immediately.

He plans to make 105 lots, averaging 50 feet frontage and 135 to 150 feet deep. There will be 5200 lineal feet, or almost a mile, of street paving. Clyde Butler, assistant city engineer, has estimated there will be 176,580 square feet of paving. This will be four-inch asphalt concrete which Butler estimates can be laid for 20 cents, or a total of $35,000. Curb and sidewalk will total $18,000.

A feature of the subdivision will be a parked boulevard extending east from Los Angeles street to Olive street, parallel to and about 300 feet north of North street. This will have wide parking between sidewalk and curb, with a 12-foot parking in the center to be planted to ornamental shrubbery and trees, with driveway on each side. It is to be called Mills Loma Court and may have an ornamental archway at the Los Angeles street entrance.

LOCATE MINER WHO HAS FORTUNE COMING

LONG BEACH, Sept. 30.—George Rumsey, missing owner of half of a rich gold mine in Arizona, sought by E. R. Gates of Los Angeles, lives in Nevada, Missouri, a woman, who knows Rumsey, informed the United Press here today.

Gates yesterday appealed for information concerning Rumsey following discovery that an old mine, which they had prospected years ago and thought worthless had developed into a rich producer.

Rumsey, the woman said, is a court stenographer in the Missouri town.

ANSWER THIS PUZZLE

Win Ford Sedan or $800
The operator of the movie machine in this theater decided to play a joke on his audience, so he threw these re-arranged "Movie" players' names on the screen.
To solve the Movie Puzzle all you are required to do is rearrange the letters in the names so that they will spell the correct actor's or actress' name. No. 1 is Mary Miles Minter. If you can guess all ten you can win Ford Sedan or $800.
Probably you know the names of most of the famous players, but just to refresh your memory we mention below the names of a few of the most popular "movie" players:
Charlie Chaplin, Bebe Daniels, Norma Talmadge, Mary Pickford, Thomas Meighan, Dustin Farnum, Tom Moore, Douglas Fairbanks, Blanche Sweet, Mabel Normand, Pearl White, Fatty Arbuckle, Wallace Reid, Beverly Bayne, William S. Hart, Clara Kimball Young, Lillian Gish.
ONLY 185 "POINTS" WINS AUTO
For each name that you arrange correctly you will receive 10 "Points" toward the FORD Sedan, or 100 "Points" in all. If you arrange all names correctly, you can win $800 more "Points" by "qualifying" your answer. That is, by proving that you have shown a copy of our paper, The Rural Weekly, to five people. The final 25 "Points" will be awarded by three judges on the neatness, style, handwriting and spelling of your answer.
The answer gaining 185 "Points" (which is the maximum) will win the FORD Sedan, or $800 in cash. Second highest will win a $200 diamond ring, and so on down the list of 25 big prizes. In case of a tie, both winners will receive same prize. Send your answer TODAY. As soon as your answer is received, samples will be sent FREE, to assist you in qualifying.
Costs Nothing to Try--You Can Win
You will not be asked to subscribe to The Rural Weekly, nor spend one penny in order to win. We have given away over 100 autos. You may be the next lucky winner. Write your answer to the Puzzle on one side of the paper, and address to upper right hand corner. You can win--Answer the puzzle now.

$25,000 BOND ISSUE TO BE VOTED UPON

ORANGE, Sept. 30.—With a bond election in the amount of $25,000, looming within the next six weeks, local voters who have changed their precincts and have not made notice of their change on the registration books were being reminded today to register at the city hall during the next week or ten days in order to be eligible to vote on the propositions coming up for ballot.

The same reminder also applies to new residents who have been in the city thirty days but have failed to register, it was stated.
The proposition soon to be put to a vote of the people are a combination bandstand and comfort station to be erected in the plaza and a store drainage system to be constructed on Cambridge street. The drain bonds will be in the amount of $10,000 and the comfort station and bandstand project about $15,000.
It was stated authoritatively today that in all probability these combined bond issues would be brought to a vote during the fore part of November, possibly around the ninth or tenth. It is possible that the date will be set at the next meeting of the city board of trustees, it was announced.

As the law declares that a voter in order to be eligible must register thirty days prior to an election it will readily be seen that there is less than two weeks in which those who have changed precincts may become entitled to vote by registering.

American Legion News Letter

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 30.—Sixteen World War veterans from one post of the American Legion in Tulsa, Okla., have settled upon government homestead land in Scott county, Southern Arkansas. By cold weather, it is estimated that 100 ex-service men will have taken claims on the land.

The territory, which will become a settlement of World War service men, the first in America, stretches over 2500 acres, composed of adjoining individual tracts of 160 acres each. The men have to live on the land but seven months before it becomes their property, as Arkansas gives residence credit to soldiers up to two years of army or navy service.

Part of the men will spend the winter on their land, clearing timber, building, hunting and trapping, for the tracts abound in deer, fox and lynx. The sixteen who have already settled are preparing to establish a central trading point and town which they will name "Legionaire." Four of the pioneers are married and all have had farming experience. Homesteading is now possible in the following other states—Washington, Michigan, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Louisiana, Alabama, Colorado, Idaho and Oregon.

A family which in itself is a thriving war veteran's anxiety has come to the notice of the American Legion in Independence, Kas. Thirty-three able-bodied men and women call the Civil War veteran, Manna C. Bruner, by the familiar "papa." Of the lot, the father, soldier of the Union in '61, is proudest of his even dozen sons who served overseas with the American forces in the World War. Of the remainder, twenty are girls and one son was too young to fight. The oldest is forty-two.

The Pershing estate in Tangipahoa Parish, La., owned jointly by heirs of John J. Pershing, father of the general of the armies, has been advertised for sale for taxes, according to a letter sent the general by the editor of an American Legion magazine published in Amite, La. The editor posted sufficient funds with the parish sheriff to prevent the sale and requested General Pershing to make the estate available for colonization by his comrades who are being rehabilitated, after war wounds, for agricultural pursuits. The Pershing tract contains 100 acres of the parish's best land.

The number of civilian employees in the Panama canal zone has been reduced 40 per cent since March 4, 1921, and more than 700 former soldiers will be forced out of employment if there is not a let-up, an appeal from the canal zone to the American Legion's representatives in Washington declares. Two army officers and three civilians appointed by Secretary of War Weeks recommended the sweeping reductions in personnel.

Milady's fashionable corsage bouquet may have started life as a handful of ragweed, for disabled soldiers in Kansas City hospitals are doing a thriving business in making artificial and lifelike posies out of ordinary weeds. War mothers of the city are teaching the wounded men to color the weeds with dyes and the American Legion is helping them place the flowers with florists and gift shops.

For the return of a tattered old army rain-cape, almost worth its weight in gold because of sentiment attached to it, liberal rewards have been posted by American Legion service men of Toledo, O. The cape, property of the Rev. H. F. MacLane, chaplain of an infantry regiment in France, was used by him to cover the faces of dead soldiers lying in the Flanders mud and rain while their graves were being dug. It had been torn in many encounters with barbed wire while the chaplain followed his troops, but an undisciplined thief stole it from the minister's automobile.

Out of work, arrested on a charge of vagrancy and placed in a convict gang at Glenn Springs, N. J.,

ORANGE COUNTY NEWS

"THE BIGGEST LITTLE COUNTY ON EARTH"

CAN YOU BEAT THIS? 100-FOOT SQUASH VINE

ANAHEIM, Sept. 30.—Hugh Bell, rancher who resides 1 1/2 miles northwest of Anaheim, comes to bat with the following squash story.

Can you beat it?
"A volunteer squash vine on my place, variety unknown, has broken all records for expansiveness of vine," says Bell. "The vine is now at least 100 feet long loaded with fine squash. A part of the vine climbed a peach tree. The weight of the squash broke the tree down last night."

"The vine has had no attention of any kind, neither cultivation nor a drop of water."

"If you don't believe this, come and see for yourself."

BUILDING BOOM IS LOOMING AT GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Sept. 30.—Lots in the new subdivision, placed on the market last week by the Garden Grove Home Builders' association, are being snapped up very rapidly.

The association will commence the erection of a new bungalow in this tract next week, and several other new houses will be built there soon.

Mrs. T. E. Lake, mother of H. A. Lake, has purchased a residence lot in the Home tract, and will commence at once the erection thereon of a cozy bungalow.

U. S. AGENTS SEEK FRIEND OF GARDNER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Federal authorities were searching today in San Francisco for George B. Wilbur, Raymond, Wash., restaurant proprietor and close friend of Roy Gardner, train bandit de luxe.

Wilbur, who mysteriously disappeared from Raymond, made a telephone call from San Francisco to his restaurant yesterday, authorities said they had learned. They said their information was authentic.

They believe that if they can find Wilbur they will be close to capturing Gardner.

Thomas M. Keelan, World War veteran, was flogged to death by his guards, according to the American Legion post of Spartansburg, S. C., near the scene of the outrage. A federal investigation has been demanded and two men are being held.

The body of the unknown American soldier to be brought home from France by General Pershing probably will be selected from the Argonne cemetery at Romagne, where most of the unidentified dead were interred following the fighting in the forest tangles, according to information to the American Legion shortly before the general sailed. But two per cent of the war's dead yet remain in France.

LA HABRA GIRL WEDS WORLD-WAR VETERAN

LA HABRA, Sept. 30.—"Neath a beautiful arch of African merigolds and feathery greenery, tied back with great bows of yellow tulle, the marriage of Miss Rose Marie Schneider, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schneider, of La Habra, and Joshua Edward Seale, of Fullerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Seale, of Anaheim, was solemnized at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church, the Rev. Grant Smith reading the service of the double ring ceremony.

Over 250 invitations were sent out and the little church was filled to its capacity. American Legion members seated the guests. Mr. Seale, who is in business in Fullerton, is a World War veteran and a member of the Fullerton post.

The bride, one of La Habra's fairest, was exquisitely gowned in white georgette crepe, with flounces of spidery silk lace, and carried a shower bouquet. The wreath and veil worn by her mother at her wedding years ago graced her dark hair.

The baby brother and sister, Winifred and Myrtle, scattered flowers in the aisle. Miss Flora Schneider, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the groom's brother, William Seale, was best man.

A reception was held at the ranch home of the bride, at which only the intimate friends and relatives attended; these numbered over fifty.

The bride's table, around which were seated twelve of the family, was beautifully decorated by the loving hands of a friend, and was a thing of beauty. The center was graced by a huge basket of roses, dahlias and asters, typical of the bride's name, "Rose," and was all in pink. Rose pink candles in sparkling glass holders were at every plate, and after the serving of the refreshments the bride's huge cake was brought in and cut. This was ample for all.

After the reception the young couple slipped away for a short honeymoon, after which they will be at home in the Marwood apartments on Spadra street, Fullerton. The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts.

GROVE P-T. A. PLANS RECEPTION TO FACULTY

GARDEN GROVE, Sept. 30.—The Chamber of Commerce and Parent-Teacher association extends a cordial invitation to the entire community to attend a reception given to the high school and grammar school faculties next Tuesday evening October 4, at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

A splendid program has been arranged for the evening. Come and join us for a social hour. Refreshments will be served.

The Alamitos base ball team will play the Garden Grove M. E. team a game of indoor base ball, at the grammar school grounds this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend.

Next Sunday is rally day at the M. E. Sunday school. Exercises will commence at 9:45 a. m. Everyone is invited.

COLONEL GEORGE HAM, THE MARK TWAIN OF CANADA

COL. GEORGE H. HAM

Fifteen years ago if any one had taken a vote as to who was the best known American, the answer would probably have been "Mark Twain."

Today if anyone were to take a vote as to who is the best known Canadian, the answer would probably be "Colonel George Ham," and for the same reason, namely, that each in his time has been greatest laughter maker of his native country.

In his ordinary conversation he has a ripple of quaint phrase and amusing story, that make him unforgettable even to chance acquaintances. Repartee comes to him like second nature. Sir Wilfred Laurier, Canada's most famous Premier, thought to play a joke once upon Colonel Ham. "George," he said, "the cabinet in council has decided to appoint you Admiral in chief of the Canadian navy." "Thank you," said Colonel Ham, like a flash, "but if it's all the same to you I'd rather be watchman at the mint for one night."

Mark Twain had the advantage in securing world-wide recognition as a humorist through his books, for the Canadian has hitherto reached his audiences only by word of mouth.

At last, Colonel Ham has been persuaded to publish a book—"Reminiscences of a Rascallion"—sixty years of amusing recollections. In this volume he re-tells many of the stories that have made him famous, weaving these into a record of Canadian life of the last sixty years, which will be invaluable to the future historian. Col. Ham was the first Canadian war correspondent, seeing service in both the Louis Riel Rebellions. He was editor of the Manitoba Free Press until Van Horn commandered him for the Canadian

TO CALL FOR BIDS ON STREET PAVING

SEAL BEACH, Sept. 30.—Main street is to be paved and with concrete in compliance with wishes of a large majority of frontage owners.

At a meeting of the city council a resolution was adopted by unanimous vote declaring it to be the intention of the board to improve Main street with six-inch concrete paving.

If there is no further delay in the proceedings a contract for the work should be awarded at a meeting of the board to be held on November 17.

This will mean considerable activity here during the winter months, for it is now likely that other streets will also be improved.

VILLA PARK

VILLA PARK, Sept. 30.—John P. Holditch attended the 91st Division reunion in Los Angeles on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. William Bathgate returned from San Juan Capistrano on Sunday. She had been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen and son, Glenn, spent Sunday at Newport Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Adams, Mrs. J. P. Holditch and Gwendolynne spent Sunday at Newport Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord returned from Catalina on Saturday where they had been for several days.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Squires, motored up to Pomona with her.

Monday evening a motor party motored to Laguna Beach where they enjoyed a swim and a beach supper.

Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rasch, Jack and Frances Ann Rasch, Mrs. Ellen in sparkling glass holders were at every plate, and after the serving of the refreshments the bride's huge cake was brought in and cut. This was ample for all.

EVENING SALUTATION

The more I think of it, I find this conclusion impressed upon me, that the greatest thing a human soul ever does in this world is to see something and tell what it saw in a plain way. Hundreds of people can talk, for one who can think, but thousands can think, for one who can see. To see clearly is poetry, prophecy, and religion, all in one.—John Ruskin.

CONNECTICUT'S EXAMPLE

Perhaps California will profit by Connecticut's example.

Connecticut's legislature has passed a law under which five days must elapse between the time of application for a marriage license and its issuance. Connecticut for years has been known as a state in which it was remarkably easy to get a license. Couples from other states who desired to be married with the fewest possible number of questions asked them by officials have flocked to Connecticut, with the result that the state got a reputation that grew no less savory as time went on.

The new law in Connecticut should tend to make marriage in Connecticut a bit more important than an afternoon's jaunt in an automobile. Marriage is a serious matter. If it is not entered into seriously it is likely to be more so.

A number of California legislatures have had an opportunity to pass measures such as Connecticut has adopted, but the proposal of a law has generally been met with gibes and grins. Legislators have refused to take the proposal as anything but a joke.

It's no joke. If there is any method by which illy-considered marriages, dare-weddings, and mid-night-frolic ceremonies can be done away with in California, it's time the example set by Connecticut be transformed into some sort of action in California.

"Language," a philosopher once said, "was made to conceal thought." It certainly keeps people from understanding each other in the Irish negotiations.

SCHOOLS FOR MAJORITY

It is considered very modern and progressive to provide special classes and special teachers for the backward, over-age, deficient pupils in our public schools. A writer in The American Child suggests:

"Would it not be just as wise to adapt the school system primarily to the needs of the 85 per cent who are supposedly incapable of profiting by staying in the present schools until they are 16? And provide the special classes for the highly intelligent?"

Intelligence tests, which are being used in a great many places to gauge children's ability, are genuinely helpful. It should be remembered, however, that they do not measure the whole ability and do not discover special aptitudes. Thirteen per cent of our school children drop out in the fourth grade or earlier. Sixty-nine per cent do not finish the eighth grade. This is not because all these children are of deficient intelligence or could not profit by more schooling of the right sort. With training adapted to their own needs they are capable of becoming intelligent workers and useful citizens. Since they comprise more than 80 per cent of the school population, it is evident that they are not a special group but the main body of school pupils. The "bright" 20 per cent are the minority.

It is a different point of view from the one commonly taken nowadays. Yet it is worth thinking about. Are our schools today planned mainly for the minority? Have we overlooked the educational needs of the majority? A thoughtful answer to these questions may hasten the day when the age standards for school attendance and going to work will be based not on the child's discontent in school, but on his completion of a real training which has fitted him for life.

Japan favors the open door in China—made just big enough to admit a Jap.

TRAINING WAR'S HEROINES

When vocational training for the disabled is mentioned, the service man usually comes to mind. It is forgotten that many women who acted as nurses, yeomen and reconstruction aids during the World War were wounded or otherwise so affected by the hardships of their service as to render them unable to pursue their former vocations. Yet there are many of these feminine cases. Over 300 are now being trained in new occupations.

The range covered by this training is wide. It includes everything from bee-keeping and china-painting to business management, and from dentistry to domestic science, agriculture, anesthetizing, costume design and court interpreting.

The women are taking up their studies with the same courage and determination which carried them overseas to help in the midst of horrors, and they are emerging from their training fitted to earn good incomes at important activities.

Much is heard of the failures and faults of vocational work, little of its successes. Yet here is a branch of it, important and delicate, which is being carried on successfully, according to all reports, to the credit of the government and the benefit of those concerned.

Now the public will start paying for the West Virginia war, too—in high prices for coal.

ARTIFICIAL LIGHTNING

Much has been said of the electrical possibilities suggested by the achievement of a Schenectady, N. Y., electrician, who has succeeded in producing a current of 1,000,000 volts. A spark produced by such a current is described as "artificial lightning."

It is lightning on a small scale. It produces a spark 15 feet long. A real lightning flash is made by a spark as much as two or three miles long. If man succeeds in raising the intensity of his artificial current to 50,000,000 volts, he may be able to give a pretty good imitation.

Whether that will ever be done it is impossible to say. It seems unlikely that such power could be properly controlled. There would always be danger of that tremendous force escaping and wreaking such havoc as a real lightning stroke does.

As matters stand, however, man has accomplished quite enough to give him a thrill of pardonable pride. Science has really surpassed nature and proved superior to thunderstorms. The lightning stroke is impressive chiefly because of its blinding flash and deafening noise. There is great power exerted, but only for a moment. The storm cloud, which has become a storage battery, loses its charge in a fraction of a second, expending it in a single spark. The flash may split an oak tree or knock down a chimney, but then it is done. Man can do as much with a stick of dynamite or 10 cents' worth of gasoline. The high frequency currents produced now by our electric engineers are far more effective, though of less intensity, because they operate continuously.

Lightning, captured, would not amount to much. There is many a dynamo now operating in this country which produces more electrical force in the course of a day than is produced by an ordinary electrical storm.

There is no shortage of time. Everybody has just as much time in twenty-four hours as any other person has. You have enough time if you use it right. But you must use your time, or all eternity would do you no good.

To Avoid Failure

San Bernardino Telegram

You are extremely interested in those who have made a success of life, for they have attained what you want. You study them, try to figure out how they did it, hoping to get a profitable idea for yourself. A good system for getting ahead.

But a psychologist, in analyzing strength, doesn't stop with a study of Sandow. He takes the other extreme also, and studies the defects that keep the weak from becoming strong.

In your way, you are a psychologist, though you may call a psychological study "getting his number." So, then, in studying success, do not overlook the failures. Learn what made them fail and you know what to avoid.

There is nothing mysterious about the degree of prosperity and success of any business, whether it's the Standard Oil Company or the owner of a peanut stand.

A business fails or succeeds by the same processes and for the same reasons that an individual goes up or down. After all, you are a business organization, with a production department (your work), a purchasing department (your spending) and a sales organization (your ability to sell your services for a high or low price).

Analyze the reasons why some businesses go into receivers' hands and you have an analysis of reasons for personal failure.

There are about 1,800,000 business concerns in our country. In the last decade, failures have averaged 14.52 a year, or less than one in 100. Bradstreet's credit agency analyzes those failures and finds that in every 100 failures, lack of success is due as follows:

Personal causes: Lack of capital, 323; incompetence, 325; fraud, 70; inexperience, 66; neglect, 13; unwise credits, 16; extravagance, 12; speculation, 6. Outside causes: Business conditions, 144; failure of others, 12; competition, 13.

Incompetence heads the list. That shows the value of schooling and experience laboriously and slowly acquired.

Lack of capital comes second as a reason for failure. In most cases, that can be overcome only by patient saving.

Business conditions, third in rank as a failure cause, are beyond the control of any individual. The best we can do is save a reserve fund for the lean years.

The Spirit Back of Words

Stockton Record

One of the refinements of modern life, is indicated in the desire of an Oakland benevolent organization to drop the word "charity" from its title and substitute "welfare" for it. A beautiful word in its original meaning, charity has come to have the unpleasant suggestion of alms about it and is offensive to those who give and to those who receive if the latter are worthy people and not professional indigents. A more kindly interpretation of life as it is lived by the submerged has led to a recognition of the fact that the recipients of what was known as charity are often the victims of circumstances which they are powerless to change. The modern tendency in social uplift is to go beneath the surface and try in kindly friendliness to improve a condition while giving the aid needed. This makes nearly obsolete the old word charity with its suggestion of doling out pennies from a privileged class to one that is inferior.

But whatever any or all these circumstances consciously govern the Oakland body in asking permission to change its title, the spirit here shown is dominant these days. It doesn't change the nature of a place to call it a sanitarium or a hospital instead of a lunatic asylum, but the words fall with less of harshness on sensitive hearts and ears. A pest-house by any other name means the same thing to the folks on the outside, but a gentler name for it makes it a trifle less forbidding to the poor devil who is sent to one. It is reasonable to believe, too, that the thing itself is improved, is vastly more sanitary since it is recognized as something better than a human kennel to put a man in when he is dangerous to others. Rather, the spirit which would do away with the crude, ugly name is a kindly one and has already made the place for which it stands a more human and scientifically clean habitation. So, for that matter, have hospitals for the insane improved under the influence of that which has dictated the less harsh name. Not merely a place of detention for persons dangerous to be at large is the modern asylum, but a genuine, well-equipped hospital in which every effort is made to reach the disease of the unfortunate and by every available means help to restore him to health.

Business conditions, third in rank as a failure cause, are beyond the control of any individual. The best we can do is save a reserve fund for the lean years.

But whatever any or all these circumstances consciously govern the Oakland body in asking permission to change its title, the spirit here shown is dominant these days. It doesn't change the nature of a place to call it a sanitarium or a hospital instead of a lunatic asylum, but the words fall with less of harshness on sensitive hearts and ears. A pest-house by any other name means the same thing to the folks on the outside, but a gentler name for it makes it a trifle less forbidding to the poor devil who is sent to one. It is reasonable to believe, too, that the thing itself is improved, is vastly more sanitary since it is recognized as something better than a human kennel to put a man in when he is dangerous to others. Rather, the spirit which would do away with the crude, ugly name is a kindly one and has already made the place for which it stands a more human and scientifically clean habitation. So, for that matter, have hospitals for the insane improved under the influence of that which has dictated the less harsh name. Not merely a place of detention for persons dangerous to be at large is the modern asylum, but a genuine, well-equipped hospital in which every effort is made to reach the disease of the unfortunate and by every available means help to restore him to health.
